PRINCE HENRY EXPECTED TODAY IN MANHATTAN

Arrangements Complete for Guarding His Royal Person.

POLICE STATION IS WITHIN EASY REACH

Two Captains Assigned to New Post Which Is Dubbed Hohenzollern.

WIRELESS INFORMATION

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—When the mayor was asked today what would be the course of procedure in case the prince's arrival should be delayed he said that all these questions would be left to the discretion of Col. Bingham, military aid to President Roosevelt, who arrived in the city today and established himself at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel. With Col. Bingham were Assistant Secretary of State Dr. David J. Hill, Adjt. Gen. Corbin, Mrs. Corbin and Commander Cowles, the president's naval aid. The gentlemen will also be at their posts to extend to Germany's ambassador the friendship and welcome of the federal government. When Col. Bingham was asked to what extent the program would be affected should the Kronprinz Wilhelm not arrive before Sunday morning he replied:

"In that event the official calls and greetings at the pier will simply be postponed until Sunday morning and the remainder of the schedule will be carried out as planned. This need not cause any serious congestion of events, for the reason that no function was scheduled for Sunday earlier than the trip to the tomb of Gen. Grant, which would not be likely to be made until Sunday noon or early in the afternoon."

Defending the Prince.

For the protection of the prince's person defensive arrangements by the police and the military have now assumed a most elaborate aspect. Capt. Titus of the detective bureau today detailed the ten detectives of the Central bureau who are to constitute the special body guard charged with the safety of Prince Henry and of President Roosevelt during their sojourn in the city. Some speculative comment was aroused by the fact that while ten of these vigilant sleuths are especially assigned to the task of safeguarding the prince, three are considered sufficient to look after the president.

It was pointed out, however, that while the president will be under the watchful care of the New York detectives on only one occasion, namely, that of the launching of the emperor's schooner yacht, the prince will need to be guarded almost continuously for many days. It will be necessary, therefore, in his case to relieve the men on duty more frequently. The detectives who will stand shoulder to shoulder with the president are Detective Sergeants Clarke, Foy and Peabody.

Police Station on the Pier.

At the shore end of the West Thirty-fourth street pier, where the Hohenzollern lies, a special police station was in full operation tonight, with more than a full complement of officers and men. Telephone and telegraph wires established direct communication between the pier and police headquarters. So important is this sub-station considered by Police Commissioner Partridge and by the senior inspector, Moses Cortright, who will have general charge of the police arrangements during the prince's visit, that two police captains, instead of one, have been there installed. Capt. Max C. Schamberger was brought down from the West One-hundredth street police station and assigned to what has now been dubbed the Hohenzollern station.

Preparations Are Complete.

All preparations have been made for the reception and entertainment of the prince, who is on the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, which is expected to arrive tomorrow. The imperial yacht Hohenzollern, after having been cleaned up and partially painted, lies at her pier at the foot of West Thirty-fourth street, awaiting the prince's arrival. Her main gangway has been placed directly opposite the door through which Prince Henry will land from the Kron Prinz Wilhelm. He will cross the pier and board the Hohenzollern. At the gangway he will be met by Admiral von Baudissin, while the other officers of the yacht will stand at the sides of the gangway. Behind, on the decks of the boat, the crew will be drawn up, and the ship's band will play a national air as the prince steps on the boat.

Marconi Feelers Out.

The Marconi apparatus on the Hohenzollern has been tested and found to be in good working order. Tonight the operator on board began to send messages in the effort to locate the prince's ship. On board the Cunarder Etruria the wireless apparatus is also in readiness and an operator on watch for signals from the Kron Prinz Wilhelm.

Admiral Evans, General Corbin and Assistant Secretary of State Hill, the president's delegates, will board the Kron Prinz, probably at the Quarantine station, and will greet Prince Henry in the name of the United States government.

All arrangements have been completed for the dinner to be given to the American press in honor of Prince Henry on Tuesday next, and Herman Ridder, who has charge of the preparations for this banquet, said to-day that the number of acceptances received from leading representatives of the newspaper world was very gratifying.

Theater Beautifully Decked.

The Irving Place theater, where a gala performance is to be given tomorrow evening, has been beautifully decorated, and orders have been given for the festooning of the prince's box with American beauty roses, more than 400 of the roses to be used for this purpose. Heinrich Conreid, manager of the theater, has had a special entrance broken through the wall on the Fifteenth street side of the theater, in order to permit the prince to enter the royal box immediately on stepping from his carriage.

The play selected for this performance is Blumenthal and Kadelburg's three act comedy, "Im Weissen Roessel." This selection was made by request, as the prince has thus far had no opportunity of seeing the play, owing to the fact that during the time when it was given in various cities of Germany he was in China.

Everything has been made ready for the special opera performance to be given for the prince. It is believed that this will be the most brilliant performance in the history of the Metropolitan opera house.

A LITTLE JEALOUS OF THE RECEPTION TO PRINCE HENRY

The London Weekly Press Reminds Us England Was Our Better Friend During the Spanish War.

CRITICISM OF M'KINLEY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Feb. 21.—The weekly reviews make the impending arrival of Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia at New York the occasion of another chapter in the Spanish-American war controversy.

The Spectator reviews at length the whole story of the diplomatic exchanges, with a view of controverting what it terms "the distortion of the actual facts by the German press." The paper disclaims any intention of attempting to mar the reception to be tendered Prince Henry, but declares that both Englishmen and Americans "see through Germany's game," and refuse to be misled by the "inspired" attempts to undermine their mutual friendship and understanding.

Appeal to History.

"A fact which will be written down by the historian," says the Spectator, "is as well recognized today as it will ever be. That is, that England used her influence, and the Americans know she used it, on the side of the United States, as against those who wished to take the side of Spain. A test of the attitude toward America during the war, displayed by England and Germany respectively, is found in the respective attitudes of the English and German squadrons toward Admiral Dewey in Manila bay. The Germans nearly fired on the Americans. If they had done so, the English would have acted on the American side."

The Outlook treats the matter lightly. It says Emperor William, "now, as in China, uses Prince Henry as a bait for the German hook. Neither Prince Henry nor his astute brother, the emperor, will ever succeed in weakening the substantial grounds upon which Anglo-American co-operation now rests."

Secretary Hay's Note Approved.

In the same connection the Outlook expresses great satisfaction at Secretary Hay's note to Russia and commends it as a strong document, "which gains additional force from its despisal of old-fashioned diplomacy."

The Saturday Review, on the other hand, pursues its customary anti-American course, and roundly abuses the government for being drawn into this fresh "humiliating position," and denominates the whole controversy as an "international slanging match."

The Saturday Review declares that the disclosures blacken the memory of the late President McKinley, as they show he followed Bismarck's policy without Bismarck's excuse, and that he willfully suppressed Spain's final capitulation in order to precipitate war when he might manfully have stood out against the popular clamor and secured peace.

BIG HOTEL BURNING.

Waldorf-Astoria in New York Also Threatened—Large Armory on Fire.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22, 3 a. m.—(Special.)—A fire broke out at 1:45 this morning in the armory of the Seventy-first regiment, corner of Thirty-fourth street and Fourth avenue.

Almost all the fire department is on hand, but the fire is not under control.

The Park Avenue hotel is now burning.

Guests of the Waldorf-Astoria, a block away, have been awakened.

Cartridges in the armory magazine are exploding, increasing the excitement.

HURLED TO DEATH.

One Man Killed and Two Seriously Injured in a Boiler Explosion Near Brookville.

BROOKVILLE, PA., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—A terrible accident occurred at the mill of Eli Snyder, two miles northwest of here, about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. A boiler used to furnish motive power for the mill exploded, instantly killing Everett Procious, a young man 27 years of age, and so seriously injuring Robert Thompson and Sidney Snyder, that their recovery is doubtful.

The boiler was a small one and was located near Snyder's blacksmith shop. A number of persons, in addition to those injured, were in the vicinity and narrowly escaped injury from flying debris. The boiler house and blacksmith shop were entirely demolished by the force of the explosion, which was heard miles away.

Young Procious was terribly mangled, and his body thrown a distance of 75 yards from the scene. Thompson was struck in the stomach by flying scrap iron, and, although fearfully wounded, managed to drag himself to his home, some distance away, leaving a trail of blood in the snow. Snyder was thrown some distance, and it is feared was injured internally. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

Afraid to Push Him.

TWO OF ALLEGED BOODLERS MENACE EIGHTEEN OTHERS

Their Threat Causes a Scramble in St. Louis to Get the Accused Men Clear.

MORE WARRANTS MONDAY

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. LOUIS, MO., Feb. 21.—"I have done nothing except what the majority of the house of delegates to which I belonged has done also. If I go up, I'll take 18 of those fellows with me, you bet!" said J. K. Murrell, former member of the house of delegates which passed the suburban franchise bill for $70,000, it is alleged, and who also is under indictment for alleged bribery.

Ex-Councilman Charles Kratz, who also is under indictment for alleged bribery in connection with the same franchise bill, said today: "If I go up for the boodling business I will take 18 members of the council to which I belonged with me."

These two statements produced a sensation. It is alleged that powerful influences are at work to secure the acquittal of these men; that efforts will be made to delay the trials until the most important witnesses before the grand jury can be induced to leave the city.

It is pointed out that back of Ellis Wainwright is the English brewing syndicate, a monster corporation ramifying all over the United States and Europe. Back of Henry Nicolas is Adolphus Busch, the greatest one-man power in Missouri; back of R. M. Snyder is the St. Louis Transit Company; back of Kratz and Murrell is every politician, every boodler, every member of the former municipal assembly who would shrink from having exposed the methods which have been used in St. Louis for years to secure the passage of franchise grabs for the benefit of corporations.

Gov. Francis gave testimony before the grand jury today concerning certain stock and bond transactions during the period of the passing of the Central traction bill. The World's fair bill and the charter amendments will not be taken up by the grand jury, there being no evidence to show the existence of any fraud in connection therewith.

It is known positively that two bench warrants, at least, will be issued Monday. The bench warrants will be in connection with the garbage contract secured by Col. Ed Bittler. It is practically certain that another millionaire will be added to the list of those indicted by the present grand jury for bribery.

ELKIN'S FRIENDS CUT LOOSE FROM STONE'S MACHINE

Loud in the Assertion He Is Not Committed to the Lost Cause.

NOT AN ISSUE IN THE PITTSBURGH CONTEST

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, PA., Feb. 21.—The crushing defeat of the Pittsburgh ring at Tuesday's election has not changed the purpose of the Stone-Flinn machine to attempt to force the nomination of Attorney General Elkin for governor, to succeed the discredited Stone. Elkin's friends here insist upon his staying in the fight, and profess to have no doubt of his ability to control the next Republican state convention. They say he studiously avoided taking any part in the Pittsburgh contest and that he has not been in communication with Messrs. Flinn, Brown or any of the other ring leaders of that city.

Mr. Elkin returned last night from New York and was at his office today, going over the papers in the proceedings to revoke the charter of the National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics. He declined to discuss the Pittsburgh affair in particular, or the political situation in Pennsylvania in general, except to deny that he and Recorder Brown were together yesterday in New York.

Elkin's adherents are alarmed at the effect of the Stone-Flinn defeat on his candidacy. They say the Pittsburgh situation was not of his making and that he was in no way responsible for it. They also say he advised Stone against the removal of Major Adam M. Brown from the office of recorder, and said so publicly at the time of his removal.

Elkin's campaign managers are trying to make local Republican leaders throughout the state believe that the fight for governor was in no sense an issue in the recent campaign in Pittsburgh, and that the issue there was purely local.

An attempt is also being made by them to prove that Elkin is the party's choice for governor, by pointing to the action of Chester and Jefferson counties in instructing their delegates, 10 in all, for Elkin, right on the heels of the Pittsburgh election. Berks and Carbon also instructed for him, and there is no opposition to his delegate in Union county, which holds its primaries tomorrow.

Elkin's silence on the Pittsburgh result would seem to indicate that he attaches more significance to it than some of those who are doing so much talking for him.

WU IN AN ARGUMENT.

The Chinese Exclusion Law Causes Heated Colloquy in a Hotel Corridor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Wu Ting Fang, Chinese minister to the United States, and James D. Phelan, formerly mayor of San Francisco, had an exciting colloquy on the subject of Chinese exclusion in the corridor of an uptown hotel today.

Mr. Phelan was one of a delegation that visited Washington to urge re-enaction of the exclusion act and holds pronounced views on the subject. He and the minister met by chance and after renewing recollections of a former meeting at the Bohemian club in San Francisco, expressed their views in tones that attracted a crowd. They quieted down before they parted and the minister in conclusion said:

"You know about the subject now that I have talked to you."

SUICIDE SEEMS CERTAIN.

Citizen of West Lafayette, O., Found Dying Near New Brunswick, New Jersey.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Isaac R. Henderson of West Lafayette, O., was found dying from a bullet wound in the head in a lonely spot near New Brunswick, N. J., early today. By his side lay a revolver, one cartridge in which had been exploded. He died without having regained consciousness.

Circumstances all point to suicide. A note was found on his body addressed to D. R. Culberson of West Lafayette, asking him to pay his debts, and with the note was $173 in cash.

PLUCKY SONGSTRESS SAVES "FAUST" FROM AN UTTER FAILURE

Orchestra Leader Fails to Appear at Empire Theater, but Miss Nevins Takes His Place.

WINS HEARTY APPLAUSE

The Boston Lyric Opera Company, out at the Empire theater, was pulled out of what looked like dire failure last evening by the ability, heroism and pluck of one little woman, Miss Delia Nevins.

The company is not rich in scenery, nor is it great, especially, as a musical organization. It has been playing this week in repertoire of grand opera in English at the Empire theater. At half a glance one could tell that the work must of necessity fall upon a few people.

Last night at the last moment the mainstay of this working group failed them. Mr. Pell, the leader of the orchestra, for some unexplained reason, failed to show up.

There was consternation behind the scenes. The audience had gathered and the question was a pressing one. Col. William Thompson, the veteran business manager of the company and an impresario with a long and varied experience, was undaunted.

He went into the orchestra and with baton uplifted, started the strains of Gounod's familiar music. But the chorus and even the principals were in confusion.

The first act was raggedly gotten through with, despite the efforts of the redoubtable colonel to bring order out of chaos.

Then it was that a heroine appeared. Miss Della Nevins, a member of the company, made up to sing the role of "Martha," threw off her makeup and went to the piano in the orchestra. From this vantage point she played the score on the piano and sang her role for a voiceless dummy, who walked through the part.

Under other circumstances and with one less capable, it would have been farcical, but Miss Nevins' bravery and her evident earnestness and familiarity with the music, turned the tide, and the audience greeted her as the heroine of the hour. It is doubtful whether "Faust" was ever sung under like circumstances before, but the plucky little woman persevered to the end and made the performance a success.

She deserved the stormy greeting she caught from every part of the house when at last Marguerite's woes were ended and the curtain rung down.

WEYLER IS ANXIOUS TO CRUSH OUT THE SPANISH RIOTERS

The Disorder in Spain Threatens to Lose a Throne for the Hapsburg's. Trouble Is Widespread.

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

MADRID, Feb. 21.—The industrial situation is still alarming despite the fact that official dispatches have been received here to the effect that calm has been restored at Barcelona, Saragossa and Valencia. Rioting has been in progress in all parts of the kingdom. Serious disturbances have occurred at Barcelona and Valls, in Catalonia; Saragossa and Valencia, in Aragon; Bilbao and Gijon, in Leon; Coruna, in Galicia, and Cuenca, in Castile, besides in several smaller cities, including Villa Franca, Lesnor and Cardona.

A large number of people have already been killed in the riots and an even larger number wounded. Gen. Weyler, the minister of war, has been urging the queen regent to give him a free hand in dealing with the "rebels in Catalonia," but Premier Sagasta has threatened to resign if Gen. Weyler's request is granted. It is said that the queen regent favors Weyler's plan.

Martial Law at Saragossa.

The city of Saragossa, in Aragon, on the banks of the Ebro, with a population of 100,000 people, is under martial law; no newspapers were published there yesterday and the trouble is spreading.

Reports from messengers who crossed into France from Barcelona, the largest manufacturing city of Spain, say that up to the time they left the Red Cross society had buried 62 bodies, many of them the bodies of women. According to their statements eight persons were killed and 23 wounded in the attack on the jail yesterday. Another fight occurred at the Atalazanas barracks and many of the soldiers were killed by the mob, who also fired the building. Four of the rioters, who were also strikers, were arrested, summarily tried and shot.

Excitement Widespread.

The greatest excitement prevails everywhere. The garrisons of Burgos and Vitoria have been ordered to be in readiness to start for Saragossa at a moment's notice. All of the railroads are guarded by troops.

In a riot at Valencia yesterday, three persons were wounded and 14 arrests were made.

The rioters at Barcelona are devoting their energies to preventing food supplies from entering the town. In one such case the troops escorting a convoy were obliged to fire on the rioters, several of whom were killed or wounded.

A serious conflict also occurred today in the center of the town. The efforts of the captain general to persuade the dock laborers to resume work have failed, and the entire trade of Barcelona is at a standstill. Revolutionary proclamations are still being circulated there.

Exciting Debate in Chamber.

The exciting debate in the chamber of deputies here on the interpellation yesterday of Senor Robent, deputy from the province of Catalonia, in regard to the occurrences at Barcelona, was renewed today. Senor Romero Robledo asked for information regarding the meeting of the foreign consuls at Barcelona, and, when the minister of the interior, Senor Gonzales, professed his ignorance of this meeting and declared the interpellation to be inopportune, the deputies of the opposition displayed the greatest impatience.

Gen. Weyler, the minister of war, announced in the chamber that he had decided upon energetic steps to suppress the disorders, but that some of the news sent by correspondents was exaggerated.

Queen Deceived by Minister.

Senor Meucheta, manager of the Diario of Barcelona, who arrived from Barcelona this morning, spoke in defense of the correspondents, who, he said, always told the truth, while the government deceived the queen and the country. Senor Meucheta said he considered the publication of false news should be punished by court martial and declared Barcelona to be in a state of continued alarm.

Senor Gonzalers denied that the censor had stopped telegrams describing the situation at Barcelona. Continuing his remarks, the manager of the Diario reiterated that the government had dealt with press messages in a manner which most reactionary governments would not countenance and said that in many cases the addressees of the messages were not informed that their telegrams had been stopped.

Crankpin Causes a Wreck.

OBERLIN, O., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—A Lake Shore accommodation, which left Cleveland at 3 o'clock, was wrecked near here this afternoon. Lewis Bates, the only person seriously injured, was hurt when he jumped from the train.

A crankpin on the engine broke, a connecting rod giving way, followed by the one on the opposite side of the engine. The airbrake apparatus was damaged in the fuss and the entire train left the track, the engine and coaches remaining upright.

ICE BROUGHT DISCOMFORT TO PITTSBURGHERS

The Whole City Was in Its Unpleasant Grasp for Many Hours.

PEDESTRIANS HAD TO THROW ASIDE DIGNITY

Accidents Were Numerous, but None Had Any Serious Consequences.

NO DANGER AT PRESENT

Pittsburgh was icebound yesterday morning. Icy wires, tracks that were thickly encased in an icy covering, ice-covered pavements that fairly relieved the scowling countenances of the unlucky pedestrians who ventured out early; windows that shone with icy crystals, icicles of all sizes and shapes hanging from trees and shrubbery, icy railing and slippery stairs and an icy mist that hung over the city during the early morning hours—ice everywhere, made the day remarkable.

The ice spectacle came as a surprise to most people. Those who happened to wander home late the night before knew of the heavy rain that had started, but the majority of city dwellers looked out upon the shimmering scene yesterday morning with wonder. It was a sort of grudging parting that winter had evidently decided to give before loosening its hold preparatory to yielding to the spring sunshine.

Ice Lingered Long.

Until nearly noon the reign of ice continued. It wasn't the ordinary sort of ice, but had an added element of treachery in its watery covering. For the pavements, after freezing solid with an inch or more of ice, were washed as clean by the morning rain as with a hose. In many places the water stood in puddles on the walks and streets, making escape from danger doubly difficult. The proceedings of early pedestrians presented a motley appearance. Every safeguard was hunted up for the occasion. Persons who had not worn rubbers this winter came out gingerly with a pair of dusty overshoes that might have been laid away for months. Rubber heels and creepers were in great demand, and the dealers in these lifesavers drove a brisk trade. Canes of all sorts were brought into use and sharp sticks, brooms or anything, in fact, that would furnish a partial support was tried on the ice.

Hill Residents Dismayed.

The hill residents were at first in dismay, for the icy rails and general irregularity in the weather's capers had made street car service extremely uncertain, and many waited for an hour before their accustomed car, loaded to the steps, came along. Those who tried the descent made sorry work of it. It was a case of one step forward and three steps backward for the wary ones. The more venturesome and more successful ones remembered their boyhood pranks and seated themselves on a board or barrel stave and made the descent in safety.

The few who feared to risk their dignity by leaving the accustomed stairs "got their bumps." Long before the first landing was reached they failed to hit the steps—with their feet—but struck each stair with fearful force with their heads and arms as they went sprawling and sliding and thumping to the bottom of the hill.

Block and Tackle Used.

It took a block and tackle to get James Sands from where he had fallen yesterday. Sands lives at No. 7 Crescent street, on the side of the hill above Grant boulevard, near the Seventeenth street incline. As he went out of his door yesterday morning on his way to work his foot slipped out from under him and he landed on the boulevard 20 feet below. How to get him home was a puzzle, until the police rigged a fall from the rear porch of a house near by. Sands, with a broken arm and various minor injuries, was hoisted up to his home.

Mrs. Rachel Vanstein of Etna fell in front of a street car on Beaver avenue, Allegheny, yesterday morning. She was pushed a few feet by the fender, but was not injured.

Police Officer John Quigg fell off a street car yesterday morning on Second avenue, near Flowers avenue, and was stunned. A car following nearly ran over him.

George Anderson, No. 5942 Carnegie avenue, while on his way to work fell on Butler street. His right wrist was sprained.

Thomas Moore, 65 years of age, of Columbia place, Allegheny, fell near Riverview park yesterday morning and dislocated one arm.

Right Leg Broken.

George Edwards of Stanton avenue broke his right leg by falling near his home.

John Gilder of Rutherglen street fell on Second avenue yesterday morning about daylight and a street car ran over him. One leg was so crushed that it was removed at Mercy hospital.

Grace Morgan, 11 years of age, ran in front of a street car yesterday morning on her way to school in Crafton. She was struck by the car and thrown to one side, practically unhurt.

Andrew Roberts fell on the ice in Braddock yesterday morning while on his way to work and dislocated his right shoulder.

Storm's Serious Aspect.

The ice storm had its serious aspect, too. The heavy coating on the telegraph wires caused great damage. Poles were broken and trees which were laden with the load of crystals were broken off or bent and fell upon the wires. The linemen from the telephone and telegraph companies were busy the latter part of the night and it was not till noon that the obstacles were all removed.

On the trolley lines the damage was greater, for in addition to the ice-laden trolley wires, from which the trolley poles slipped at frequent intervals, the rails were coated. Loads of sand were used on the early cars and the utmost caution had to be used on the heavy grades to prevent a car runing away. In many places, too, the tracks were covered with a mass of half-frozen snow which had been washed in during the night and had to shoveled away. Traffic on all the suburban lines was irregular until 9 o'clock, and some of the lines did not get the damage repaired till noon.

Fears of Ice Gorge.

The great danger which was uppermost in the minds of everybody, however, was the ice gorge in the Allegheny river and the possibility of a flood. The heavy rain and rise in temperature many feared would loosen the mass and bring it down, carrying everything before it. All day Forecaster Frank Ridgway was bedeviled with inquiries as to the state of the gorge and the probable change in the weather. His reports were encouraging and showed that for the present there was no danger of a flood.

SOME UNIQUE EXERCISES

On the Southside George and Martha, Betsy Ross, Commodore Bainbridge and Other Distinguished Personages Were Performers.

Washington's birthday was celebrated a day in advance in some of the public schools of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. Especially elaborate performances were given at the Forbes school, at Forbes and Stevenson streets, and the Morse school, at South Twenty-fifth and Sarah streets.

The entertainment in the Morse school was almost exclusively devoted to Washingtoniana. In the main corridor on the first floor was a decorated platform on which sat Gen. Washington and his wife, Mistress Martha; the three members of his cabinet, and their wives; Betsy Ross, the maker of the first American flag, Commodore Bainbridge and the Goddess of Liberty herself, all personified by boys and girls ranging in age from 6 to 12 years. There were songs and recitations by the pupils and a patriotic hymn was sung by the young goddess.

Little Folks With Big Names.

Gen. Washington and his wife were represented by the twin children of George W. Andregg, who were born on Washington's birthday, 1895. Betsy Ross, the flagmaker, was personified by 9-year-old Betsy Ross of the Twenty-fifth ward, and the late Commodore Bainbridge had young Willoughby Bainbridge for his impersonator. Members of the general's cabinet and their wives sat on the platform in the persons of Helen Watkins, Jennie Cook, Paul O'Connor, Preston Schlicker and Alphadora Schnitzer. Edgar Lewis held the flag that waved over the revolutionary worthies.

There was quite an audience of parents present. Recitations, all pertaining to Washington, were given by Ruby Glasser, Edith Gibson, Willoughby Bainbridge, Mollie Doran, Harvey Gress, Ruth Bainbridge, Philip Reinheimer, Charles Kreppa and Betsy Ross. Songs were sung by Mazie Carter, Katie Baker and Lucinda Cruikshank. Betsy Ross recited "The Making of the Flag," with appropriate gestures. Miss Estelle Brooks, one of the teachers of the school, accompanied the singers on the piano.

Children Passed in Review.

All the small children of the school passed before the platform in review before Gen. Washington and his wife, and the little twins were kept busy bobbing curtsys in response to the bows of the marchers. The entire school was dismissed in the usual way, each room marching down the stairs by twos, forming in columns of fours. Each detachment was led by a captain, who saluted Miss Young, the principal, as he led his column past.

The children who represented Gen. Washington and his retinue were clad in costume, powdered wigs and all. The entertainment was in charge of the principal, Miss M. D. Young, assisted by nearly all the teachers of the school.

The entertainment at the Forbes school [illegible] in the principal's room, which was decorated with American flags and bunting, a bust of George Washington and the class colors, white and blue. There was a debate and several recitations.

Music and Addresses.

Fesla Silverman and Walter Smith played a violin duet, Miss Goldmann sang and Tillie Teplitz played a piano solo. Prof. Samuel C. Andrews, superintendent of schools, was present and made a speech, praising the pupils for their work. H. H. Bengough, John P. McTighe, Evan Jones, C. A. Richardson and C. Stoehr spoke. The exercises were in charge of Miss McKinley, teacher of the high school class.

A Washington program was also a feature in the Lincoln school, at Lincoln and Frankstown avenues.

In rooms 14 and 15 of the Second ward school, Irwin avenue, Allegheny, a Martha Custis Washington tea party was given. The kindergarten class of the Thaddeus Stevens school, Thirty-sixth ward, gave an entertainment last night. An informal entertainment was held at the Riverside school, on West Carson street.

Club Given a Flag.

The school children of the first four wards of Pittsburgh and the first six wards of Allegheny last night presented the Alexander Hamilton Republican club with a handsome silk flag. The honor was presented by Miss Florence Schirber, a schoolgirl of the First ward, Pittsburgh, on behalf of the children of the other schools. A. N. Hunter, Esq., received the flag for the club. There were about 200 school children present, accompanied by their parents and several teachers. After the flag presentation the club gave a splendid supper at the club house in Church avenue, Allegheny.

HAY-PAUNCEFOTE TREATY RATIFIED

ENGLISH GOVERNMENT'S ASSENT HAS BEEN RECEIVED.

Copies Had Been Prepared and Signed and Were Exchanged—Now Become Part of Two Nations' Record—British Ambassador's Work Not Yet Completed

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 21.—Final ratification of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, giving England's assent to the construction of a canal across Central America by the United States were exchanged at the state department this afternoon. There was very little ceremony about the exchange. Copies of the treaty had been prepared, precisely similar, except in the fact that the signatures were inverted in one copy and these were formally exchanged between Lord Pauncefote and Secretary Hay. A protocol being signed, formally attesting to that fact, which will form part of the records.

Lord Pauncefote was in the best of humor over the successful ending of the labors of himself and Secretary Hay for he regarded the treaty as the most important convention ever drawn between the United States and Great Britain, and one that will do much to prevent friction in the future bewteen the two peoples.

It has been suggested that with the completion of this great work the British government might regard Lord Pauncefote's services as ended, but it is learned that this is not the case.

Lord Lansdowne, the secretary of foreign affairs, has signified to Lord Pauncefote his desire that he shall remain in Washington for an indefinite period.

BIG STRIKE IS RUMORED.

New Jersey Glass Workers May Go Out Unless Demands Are Granted.

Reports from Philadelphia say that a strike of the window glass workers of New Jersey is about to be inaugurated. Such a strike would cut off the contribution of about 200 of the pots of the country, and would materially curtail the certain overproduction. Besides, it would give the rival interests opportunity to place the idle workmen in either factories of the American Window Glass Company or the Independent Glass Company.

An incipient strike in the Charleroi district is brought forward as a factor in the window glass conflict, and it is said that this strike will spread and cut off the most important factor of the importing trade.

After the National Window Glass Jobbers' association had placed its last 500,000-box order with the American Window Glass Company and the Federation Co-Operative Window Glass Company the Independent Glass Company announced lower prices. President James A. Chambers of the American Window Glass Company promptly advised all the jobbers that they could withdraw their specifications on the 500,000-box order and buy the cheaper Independent company glass.

The object was to load the Independent Company with orders for its cheaper glass and remove it as much as possible from the market. However, it is understood on excellent authority that the jobbers have specified for 425,000 boxes of the joint 500,000-box order.

President John L. Denny of the new organization of glass workers, who returned from a conference with the New Jersey owners yesterday, said that strike reports were premature. He expects the owners to meet the wage advance requested, but even if it is refused he says that it cannot be assumed his men will go into American window glass factories.

NATIONS ARE TO BE CALLED TO ACCOUNT

IF BRIGANDS HAVE PLAYED FALSE GOVERNMENTS MUST ANSWER.

United States Will Direct Its Entire Power Upon Turkey and Bulgaria. Outlaws Must Be Eliminated Regardless of Cost or Effort.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—It is estimated at the state department that 15 days have now elapsed since the money for Miss Stone's ransom was paid over to the agents of the brigands. At least five days have elapsed beyond the time fixed in the stipulation to place her in the hands of her friends. There is no explanation for the delay. It is hoped that physical conditions, such as heavy snows and adverse weather, may account for the failure to secure her delivery. The officials are loath to believe that there has been a breach of faith on the part of the brigands, but even if this were so they do not regard themselves as blameworthy for having trusted them.

From the first the United States government has been adverse to paying a ransom, but in response to appeals from every quarter it reluctantly authorized Mr. Leishman to deal with the brigands.

However, if it shall turn out that the brigands have broken faith and that they have taken the ransom money and spirited the captives away again, or that they have killed them, then there will be no further attempt to deal with the brigands on the part of the United States government, but its entire power will be directed upon Turkey and upon Bulgaria to procure the swift and certain extermination of the brigands regardless of cost or effort.

LYNN OFFICERS HAVE GONE AWAY IN DISGUST

Detectives Who Were After George W. Clarke Accuse Gov. Stone of Their Failure.

Detectives Charles H. Colby and John T. Fitzgerald of Lynn, Mass., returned home last night after spending five weeks in Pittsburgh in a fruitless quest after George W. Clarke, who is wanted in Lynn on several charges of larceny.

The Lynn detectives carried with them the long-delayed requisition papers from Gov. Stone, but not the fugitive. The Pittsburgh police say that they are not able to find young Clarke, and that they haev been unable to obtain any trace of his whereabouts.

The Lynn officers said before leaving that they had placed the case in the hands of District Attorney John C. Haymaker, and that a demand for the forfeiture of bond would be made unles the fugitive is produced within a reasonable time. The officers blame Gov. Stone for the failure of their mission, and accuse the state executive of aiding in Clarke's escape from justice.

They said that Gov. Stone delayed the requisition as long as possible in the hope of persuading the Massachusetts authorities to dismiss the charges against Clarke. Failing in this plan the Lynn officers assert that Gov. Stone prolonged the matter again in order to give Clarke a chance to get out of town.

The governor fixed Wednesday for a hearing. When Wednesday came and Clarke was safely out of the reach of the authorities Gov. Stone granted the requisition without having the hearing which he previously said would be required. He summoned the Lynn officers to Harrisburg to receive the requisition and they returned to Pittsburgh to be met with the information that Clarke had disappeared.

Thomas R. Kelly, the Wylie avenue saloonkeeper, is on Clarke's bond for $500. Kelly said last night that he had gone on the bond at the request of a friend, but that he had not seen Clarke's father for a couple of years. He said he would pay the amount of the bond without protest if a demand is made by the Massachusetts people, but that he had no guarantee from Clarke's relatives or friends to reimburse him for the forfeiture of the $500.

MANY INJURED COASTING.

Five People Were Hurt in Homestead Yesterday, and One Fatality May Result.

There were several coasting accidents in Homestead yesterday. In one of them a boy received injuries from which he probably will not recover.

John Middelmass, 14 years of age, and a negro boy named Dickinson, of about the same age, went down West street on a sled about 9 o'clock in the morning. At Eighth avenue they ran into a milk wagon. Both were picked up unconscious. The negro soon revived. He had some scalp wounds, but was not severely hurt. Middelmass sustained a fractured skull. Last night he was in a precarious condition.

Mulford Schaeffer fell off a sled in McClure avenue, and another sled ran into him. He was unconscious for some time, and at first it was thought that he was injured internally.

Daniel S. Cotter and John O'Brien, well known men of Homestead, were thrown from a sled in McClure street and were badly bruised.

CRAZY SNAKE'S FOLLOWERS ADOPT DESPERATE LINE OF ACTION.

Two Captured in Running Fight—They Were Bound to the Lodge of the Blind Interpreter of the Tribe—The Snake Indians Have Scattered.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Feb. 21.—A band of Crazy Snake's followers today made a raid on Keokuk Falls, Okla., just across the line from the Creek nation, rushed into a hardware store, seized a lot of arms and ammunition and fled. A posse immediately started in pursuit, and, it is said, captured several of the band after a two-hours' running fight.

Two of the captured men have been brought to Keokuk Falls. They are George and Peter Hutipitta, prominent members of the Chitoohario band. They stated that they were going to get arms and then go to Yard-de-ka Chute's place, 20 miles west of Eufala. Old Yard-de-ka is a blind interpreter, living near the council meeting place of the Snake band. The latest from Wewoka is that the Snakes have dispersed, going in every direction.

News from the Travelers.

From a cable dispatch received tonight from Queenstown announcing the arrival there of the eastward bound Lucania, the time of the arrival here of the westward bound Kronprinz Wilhelm can be approximately judged. The Cunarder had accomplished 1,700 nautical miles of her journey, the Kronprinz, which reported "all well" 1,700 miles of hers. Calculating by our time alone, it was roughly 4 o'clock Wednesday when the two were in communication. The Kronprinz was then 1,730 nautical miles distant from New York. To reach that point it was necessary for her to have maintained an average speed of 488 knots a day. Should she maintain that gait she will be 76 miles distant from Nantucket lightship at 4 o'clock Saturday morning. Adding the 200 miles more of distance to New York she should be off Sandy Hook about 6 o'clock Saturday evening.

FAILED ON A QUORUM.

Machine Did Not Succeed in Passing Ordinance for Another Assistant Solicitor.

Organization members failed yesterday to get a meeting of the finance committee of councils, which had been called for the purpose of approving the ordinance providing for the appointment of an additional assistant city solicitor. This ordinance was introduced in councils a couple of months ago, and referred to the finance committee.

At the time the ordinance was introduced in councils it was stated that the appointment was to go to Andrew C. Robertson, chairman of the Republican county committee.

Chairman Robertson was unsuccessful in obtaining the machine indorsement for the South Side congressional nomination and he also failed to get the appointment of attorney for the city delinquent tax collector. He was next a candidate to succeed Clarence Burleigh, when the latter resigned the position of city solicitor. Again he failed to get the appointment. Thomas B. Carnahan succeeding Mr. Burleigh.

The new assistant city attorneyship is to be created to compensate Mr. Robertson for his many disappointments. In the recent municipal campaign Robertson was not as ardent a machine advocate as formerly, and is alleged to have supported the Citizens ticket.

The committee did not meet yesterday, owing to the failure to obtain a quorum. Messrs. Ruhlandt, Thorn, Spiane and a couple of other machine members were present. After waiting awhile for other members to put in an appearance they left the controller's office.

Machine leaders say that Controller Joseph E. Lewis will be appointed to his former position of chief clerk in the delinquent tax collector's office. He held that place for about 20 years.

Director J. Guy McCandless said yesterday that he will announce, March 1, the appointment of the successor to Superintendent John Bruner of the bureau of construction, who has resigned to take a position with the Illinois Steel Company in Chicago. Director McCandless said that the appointment of an engineer to superintend the construction of the Highland reservoir will also be announced soon. The director refuses to tell who will be appointed, but says the appointees have been selected.

FIGHT OVER A DISCHARGE.

William Walker and John Niggl Had a Lively Battle.

William Walker of Cruikdollar row, between Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth streets, and John Niggl, who lives in the same neighborhood, were mixed up in a lively shooting affray last night. Walker is a foreman for the Pittsburgh Shear Knife & Machine Company and Niggl was a machinist under him. Yesterday Niggl was discharged and made some threats to use a knife on Walker.

Last night the men met in a saloon in Forty-third street. Walker left immediately and Niggl followed. Several shots were fired but before any one appeared both men got away. Later they were locked up in No. 5 police station. Niggl had a scalp wound, which he said had been inflicted by Walker with the butt of a revolver. Walker says he acted in self-defense, and that Niggl had another man with him during the affray.

ANDREWS SECURES BIG CONSOLIDATED

THE EVERETT-MOORE SYNDICATE SELLS ITS CLEVELAND SYSTEM.

Former President of the Line, Who Owns 40,000 Shares of the Stock, Secures Full Control—Puts Syndicate in Shape to Go Ahead.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 21.—The bankers committee of the Everett-Moore syndicate today issued the following official statement concerning the sale of the Big Consolidated street-railway system of this city:

"The deal for the Everett-Moore holdings of stock in the Cleveland Electric Railway Company has been practically closed. A syndicate headed by Horace E. Andrews has contracted for the entire holdings of stock of the Everett-Moore syndicate in the company. The price at which the stock will be sold is $80 per share. The Elkins-Widener-Dolan syndicate, which was negotiating for the property, failed to make a proposition satisfactory to the committee." Mr. Andrews, who was formerly president of the Big Consolidated, already has a holding of stock in the company estimated at 20 per cent of the whole. In order to secure full control it is said he must purchase about 45,000 shares more at a cost of nearly $4,000,000.

Mr. Andrews and his associates are also large holders of the stock of the Cleveland City Railway Company, known locally as the Little Consolidated, of which Senator Hanna is president. It is understood to be the purpose of those interested in the two companies to effect a consolidation. Should this be effected, it would put every street car line in the city under the control of one company.

The sale of the Big Consolidated, it is said, will in a great measure relieve the situation which forced the Everett-Moore syndicate to seek the assistance of the bankers committee. The sale of the stock at 80 returns to the holding members of the syndicate their equities in the Big Consolidated.

With the collateral trust plan in full operation to relieve the telephone situation it is believed the syndicate will practically be in shape to go ahead and conduct the affairs of its numerous other interests as formerly.

WILL DEMAND A RAISE.

Pittsburgh Union of Bricklayers Determined to Ask for More Money.

The Pittsburgh union of the bricklayers, at a meeting last night, arranged to demand a wage rate of 62½ cents an hour and an eight-hour workday. The present rate under the agreement with the master bricklayers is 50 cents an hour and eight hours.

The Pittsburgh organization, which is local No. 2, is supported by that of Allegheny No. 4, in this demand. A conference with the contractors will be arranged to take place within the next month.

Under the wage contract with the brick contractors, which will terminate May 1, the bricklayers get 50 cents an hour under the eight-hour rule. The building activity here has put a premium on this class of labor, and the craftsmen of the trade have been working at from 55 to 75 cents an hour. In Pittsburgh and Allegheny there are about 4,000 bricklayers.

LARGE CONTRACT FOR CARS.

Order for More Than 1,000,000 a Month Has Been Placed.

The H. J. Heinz Company has placed an order with the American Can Company for its heavy supply of tin cans for a year. Specifications on this contract will be about 1,000,000 cans a month, and the cost, according to average prices that the ordinary consumer of cans must pay, would be nearly $250,000. The contract runs for a year and will aggregate well over 12,000,000 cans.

H. J. Heinz, head of the Pittsburgh company, and his son Howard, are on their way for a trip to the orient to be gone several months. They will sail from San Francisco next Tuesday, and will stop at the Hawaiian islands and end the trip in Japan. The trip is made for recreation, but may involve some important business transactions.

The trustees will have $350,000 at their disposal.

MORE ROOM FOR STATE LIBRARY BADLY NEEDED

Librarian Reed Asks for the Entire Executive Building for Its Use.

SECONDED BY THE BOARD

They Hope to Get the Structure After the Completion of the New Capitol—Collection Growing, and Catalogue Brought Up to Date.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, PA., Feb. 21.—State Librarian Reed has recommended to the trustees of the state library that the entire executive building be set apart for the use of the library, for the reason that the present building is fitted only for use as a stock room for the storage of documents, magazines, state reports and kindred literature.

This building was erected in 1893 at a cost of $750,000, and is also occupied by the offices of the governor, secretary of the commonwealth, state treasurer, auditor general and attorney general. The state museum, in which are kept the flags carried by the Pennsylvania troops in the civil and Spanish-American wars, and other precious relics, also are stored in this building.

"As a library building the present structure is a monstrosity," said Dr. Reed today, "being absolutely devoid of rooms for private study and research and with no decent provision for offices and administrative work. My recommendation that the trustees make an appeal to the proper authorities for the entire executive building for the use of the state library on the completion of the new capitol was unanimously adopted at today's meeting of the board."

The board, which is composed of Gov. Stone, Secretary Griest and Attorney General Elkin, has adopted Dr. Reed's recommendation, also that he be authorized to grant the use of a part of the state library building to the Free Library commission of Pennsylvania, in order that the work of the traveling libraries under the direction of the commission might be adequately provided for.

There are at present in the state library 112,254 books and pamphlets, an increase during the past year of 5,708. Nearly the entire library has been brought under the card system of cataloguing. Dr. Reed says a great amount of work still remains to be done in the creation of a third, or subject, card, before the library catalogue is brought to the degree of efficiency demanded at present in the first-class libraries of the world. To accomplish this task years of strenuous effort and the employment of a large force of skilled workers are necessary.

IMPORTANCE OF GOOD MORALS MADE APPARENT

A Pittsburgh Attorney Says That Should Be Basis of Y. M. C. A. Membership.

THE PROGRAM AT WARREN

Addresses Were Made by a Number of Prominent Men at the Sessions Yesterday—The Rev. G. Campbell Morgan Conducts Bible Study.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WARREN, PA., Feb. 21.—The morning meeting of the Y. M. C. A. convention, after the usual song service and prayer, was addressed by H. Walton Mitchell, a Pittsburgh attorney, on "A Study of Constitutions." The subject covered the governing constitutions as well as the integral parts of the organization, the members. The most noteworthy thought in the address was that it should be the duty of every association to thoroughly investigate the moral character of each applicant for membership before he be admitted to the association. There was also a discussion of feasible amendments to constitutions, and it developed that the delegates were in favor of a uniform constitution for all the associations of the state.

WALTER M. WOOD,
Educational Director Chicago Y. M. C. A.

A. L. Williams of Wilkesbarre took up the study of membership and argued for a continuous membership instead of asking applicants to join for a single year.

Advocates Life Membership.

He would enroll them for life and drop members only when they had refused to pay their dues to the order. In this discussion it developed that reports from 15 associations showed that from 15 to 60 per cent of the members lapsed during a year. The average loss for the 15 associations was about 33 1-3 per cent. The delegates frowned down the practice of offering prizes for the purpose of securing new members which has been used by some of the associations of the state recently.

C. R. Townsend took in hand the discussion of the duties and constitution of committees. It was shown that the sentiment of the delegates was that, in naming a committee, the chairman should be first chosen with reference to his fitness to undertake the work in hand, the to select members best qualified in the task to be undertaken.

Secretary Kept Busy.

Some delegates conveyed the impression that the duties of committees were often shifted upon the secretary of the local organization. It was the sense of the convention that associate members of the order ought not to be placed upon the more important committees.

After the singing of a hymn and the announcement of the meetings for the afternoon the balance of the morning was given up to a Bible study by the Rev. G. Campbell Morgan. He derived his subject from the testimony of the Sadducee high priests of Jerusalem, who had called Christian leaders before him and remarked: "Ye have filled the city with this heresy." The study was divided into three sections, first, that we must obey God rather than man; second, that we are the witnesses on this earth, and third, that we must co-operate with the Holy Ghost.

Three Lessons Taught.

The theme was carried out to the extent of showing that the first was the cardinal rule of the Young Men's Christian association, the second a parallel with the famous scene in Jerusalem after the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, and the third that in united effort alone was the greatest measure of success possible.

The conference on physical work in the Methodist church at 3:45 was unimportant in its details, nor was anything done in the students' conference or in the directors' conference beyond the discussion of the best methods to be followed in the pursuit of the work. The directors here present today represent about as substantial and progressive business men as can be found anywhere in the state.

Charles A. Beach, superintendent of the Philadelphia branch of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad, was the presiding officer of the railroad delegates' conference.

Prominent Men Present.

B. W. Stone of Scranton was the first speaker and he pointed out that the railroad associations were weak according to statistics filed with the state secretary, in social and Bible class work, but otherwise were progressive. Some of the delegates took exceptions to the first part of Mr. Stone's statement, asserting that they had filed different reports from their associations from what was shown on the chart exhibited.

C. G. Cadwallader of Philadelphia was entertaining and instructive in his discussion of methods and his talk proved to be very helpful to the delegates. W. J. Strickler of Columbia and James Simpson of Pittsburgh were the other speakers. This evening in the Presbyterian church the Rev. I. J. Lansing of Lancaster spoke on "The Revival of Generosity." The pith of his address consisted in the broad statement that generosity in religion and religious work was being revived and thereby broadened.

CLAYSVILLE DOCTOR WILL RETURN TO PEKING

WILL BUILD A HOSPITAL

Medical Work of the Presbyterian Board Will Be in His Charge.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLAYSVILLE, PA., Feb. 21.—Dr. George Ingles, has received a short note from his son, Dr. John Ingles, now at Colorado Springs, Col., stating that he and Mrs. Ingles have been ordered to return to Pekin, China, as soon as possible, by the Presbyterian board of foreign missions in New York. The board voted an appropriation to erect a hospital in Pekin, and the doctor will have full charge of it.

Dr. Ingles is awaiting further particulars and will return east in a short time to make preparations for his trip. He and Mrs. Ingles expects to sail in the early part of April from San Francisco. On their arrival in Pekin, Dr. Ingles will superintend the erection of the hospital. It will be remembered that Dr. and Mrs. Ingles lost their only child during the seige of Pekin in June, 1900. The Presbyterian mission board had made several offers to the doctor to return, but he would not accept the conditions, it being proposed to build a hospital in connection with the mission boards of other denominations. Being unable to get the Presbyterian board to agree with his plans he had given up returning to China with his wife as missionaries and had settled at Colorado Springs and was practicing medicine.

MURDER ATTEMPTED—THREE TIMES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

UNIONTOWN, PA., Feb. 21.—Another cold-blooded attempt at murder was made in Coon Hollow Wednesday night. Two Slavs, Joe Mehalak from Continental No. 1 coke works, and Anthony Globicki, from Greensburg, wandered into a pretended restaurant run by Mrs. Virginia Moore. Her son, Philip Moore and a negro, Walter Wade, alias Jack Ware, waylaid the foreigners as they left the place and beat them over the heads with iron bars and after they were insensible they robbed them and left them lay.

Globicki managed to get out of the place and inform the police, who went with him to rescue Mehalak, whom they found covered with blood and badly beaten about the head. Seven of the worst joints in the place were raided by the police, who caught Eldridge Bell in the act of attempting to shoot one of the officers as they were raiding his house. Moore and Wade were captured and jailed and Mrs. Moore, Ella Donohue, Virgie Wilson, Mehala Miller and Charles Miller were held for court trial on various counts. The police intend to break up the notorious joints in the place.

AN ORGANIZED GANG OF ROBBERS AT WORK

OPERATING IN COUNTRY

Two Similar Robberies Took Place This Week in the Allegheny Valley.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

KITTANNING, PA., Feb. 21.—A burglary occurred at an early hour this morning at Johnetta that was a daring piece of work.

John Jack, who is building a house near that place, was aroused this morning by some one kicking on the door and shouting: "Your house is on fire." When Mr. Jack opened the door he was confronted by a revolver and four men pushed into the house.

They forced Jack into a room, put his wife and daughter in another room and then made a thorough search of the house, securing $30 in money and some rings and other jewelry. The men knew that Jack had been away on business and thought he had brought home a large amount of money. After making a search and threatening the family, the four men left the house. They were tracked a short distance along the road that leads to Leechburg, when all trace was lost.

FREEPORT, PA., Feb. 21.—One evening this week three masked robbers walked into the house of Mr. Joseph Crane, who lives at the head of Sucesco Hollow, just opposite this town, in Westmoreland county, shoved a revolver in the old man's face and told him to hand over his money and valuables. Mr. Crane is 80 years old and his wife is nearly as old and an invalid.

One man stood guard over them with a revolver, while the other two searched the house, getting $80 in money, a gold watch and a revolver. This happened in the evening about 7 o'clock. After the robbers were gone Mr. Crane raised the alarm, but the men had made good their escape. The hold-up was a terrible shock to the aged couple and may result seriously.

GREENSBURG, PA., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—Thomas Turner, the negro, who is said to have shot and killed Frederick Jones at Brinton, near East Pittsburgh, on Tuesday, is alleged to have been seen here by a family in Brown avenue last night.

The man called at the house for something to eat. His neck was wrapped up with a blood-stained handkerchief. He had evidently been exposed for several hours. After eating ravenously he hurried off in the direction of the Southwest junction, presumably to catch a freight. He walked with his head hanging low and to one side. The police and railroad detectives are on the negro's tral.

ENGINEERS BY THE HUNDRED AT MERRY FEAST

Western Pennsylvania Society Holds Its Most Successful Dinner.

GOOD ROADS MAIN THEME

Fourth Vice President E. B. Taylor of the Pennsylvania Lines Makes an Earnest Plea for Better Country Highways—Music a Feature.

The tenth annual banquet of the Engineers' society of Western Pennsylvania at the Hotel Schenley last night was a notable gathering. It was the most successful ever given by the society. Over 300 mechanical, civil, sanitary, electrical and mining engineers from Pittsburgh and various parts of the state were there.

American Beauty roses, carnations and different other cut flowers adorned the tables, upon which were small candelabra, with dainty red shades, here and there. One of the leading features of the affair was the menu card, which was very elaborate. The cover was dark gray, and on the front was the figure of a woman in black and gold, rising from a fire.

This was meant to illustrate the lines of a poem, in effect that from the flame come the development of many arts. The card was filled with many appropriate quotations, and figures of after-dinner speakers in different poses.

The Pittsburgh Orchestra club furnished the music for the occasion. Victor Herbert's "Ameer" and Ethelbert Nevin's "Narcissus" were two of the favorite selections, and their rendition was cheered to the echo.

Toastmaster Was Witty.

The credit of last night's triumph is due to Chairman N. C. Wilson and the members of the banquet committee. The committee was composed of the following members of the Engineers' society: Victor Beutner, H. J. Glaubitz, W. H. Cotter, W. H. Perkins, Prof. S. M. Kintner, J. W. Landis, E. Yawger and L. A. Taylor.

After the banquet followed the toasts. The selection of Victor Beutner as toastmaster proved a happy one. By his wit and humor he kept the whole assemblage in an uproar from the moment he began to speak until the first speaker of the evening was introduced.

E. B. Taylor, fourth vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, responded to the initial toast, his subject being "Good Roads." He said in part:

"When there is a uniform road movement in this section several very important points should be carried out, viz.: There should be proper grading, the best and toughest of stone and good drainage. There will be no greater Pittsburgh until the connecting towns be brought into closer relations with the heart of the city by good roads."

Pittsburgh's Wealth.

The Rev. Dr. William J. Holland, director of the Carnegie museum, was the next speaker, his toast being "Dame Nature as an Engineer."

"After all and in spite of the triumphs men are achieving today," he said, "when we get away from the roar of the mills, it is Dame Nature that brings relief. It is sweeter than all. The greatest of all matters is this mother who made us, and on whose bosom we sleep. Nature has taught us much."

"Pittsburgh's Contribution to Our Naval Defenses," was the subject of Capt. D. P. Jones' address. He said:

"Pittsburgh is today taking her place in the front rank of all industrial competitors. She has awakened the jealousy of all European powers. Pittsburgh is splendidly located. Her vast mineral deposits are more valuable than gold mines, and guided by skillful and successful leaders this city has taken place as the iron and steel center of America, and is fast claiming the title as the center of the whole civilized world. It is the reward of tireless energy and faultless work."

Dr. W. B. Phillips, director of the geological survey of Texas, who was to have responded to the toast, "A Texas Dogie," was unable to be present and sent regrets. "Our Society," was the subject of C. F. Scott. George S. Davidson, consulting engineer of the Mellon interests, spoke on "The Elevating Tendencies of the Engineering Profession."

SISTERS OF CHARITY
RELY ON PE-RU-NA TO FIGHT
CATARRH WHEREVER LOCATED IN THE SYSTEM.

Our Interesting Letters From Catholic Institutions.

THE SISTERS GOOD WORK.

In every country of the civilized world the Sisters of Charity are known. Not only do they minister to the spiritual and intellectual needs of the charges committed to their care, but they also minister to their bodily needs.

With so many children to take care of and to protect from climate and disease, these wise and prudent sisters have found Peruna a never-failing safeguard.

A letter recently received by Dr. Hartman from the Ursuline Sisters of Clevaland, Ohio, reads as follows:

"We have lately given Peruna a trial, for though the medicine was not new to us, we had not tried it sufficiently to testify to its worth as we are now ready to do.

"We find Peruna an excellent tonic and a valuable remedy for catarrhal affections of the throat. We have recommended it to our friends and have good reports from them as to its merits." Yours respectfully, URSULINE SISTERS.

Dr. Hartman receives many letters from Catholic Sisters all over the United States. A recommend recently received from a Catholic institution in the Southwest reads as follows:

A Prominent Mother Superior Says:

"I can testify from experience to the efficiency of Peruna, as one of the very best medicines, and it gives me pleasure to add my praise to that of thousands who have used it. For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, all remedies proving valueless for relief. Last spring I went to Colorado, hoping to be benefited by a change of climate and while there a friend advised me to try Peruna. After using two bottles I found myself very much improved. The remains of my old disease being now so slight, I consider myself cured, yet for a while I intend to continue the use of Peruna. I am now treating another patient with your medicine. She has been sick with malaria and troubled with leucorrhoea. I have not a doubt that a cure will be speedily effected."

SISTERS OF CHARITY

All Over the United States Use Pe-ru-na for Catarrh.

From a Catholic institution in Central Ohio comes the following recommend from the Sister Superior:

"Some years ago a friend of our institution recommended to us Dr. Hartman's Peruna as an excellent remedy for the influenza, of which we then had several cases which threatened to be of a serious character.

"We began to use it and experienced such wonderful results that since then Peruna has become our favorite medicine for influenza, catarrh, cold, cough and bronchitis."

Another recommend from a Catholic institution of one of the Central States written by the Sister Superior reads as follows:

"A number of years ago our attention was called to Dr. Hartman's Peruna, and since then we have used it with wonderful results for grip, coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases of the head and stomach.

"For grip and winter catarrh especially it has been of great service to the inmates of this institution."

These are samples of letters received by Dr. Hartman from the various orders of Catholic Sisters throughout the United States.

The names and addresses to these letters have been withheld from respect to the Sisters, but will be furnished upon request.

One-half of the diseases which afflict mankind are due to some catarrhal derangement of the mucous membrane lining some organ or passage of the body. A remedy that would act immediately upon the congested mucous membrane, restoring it to its normal state, would consequently cure all these diseases. Catarrh is catarrh wherever located, whether it be in the head, throat, lungs, stomach, kidneys or pelvic organs. A remedy that will cure it in one location will cure it in all locations.

Peruna is such a remedy. The Sisters of Charity know this. When catarrhal diseases take their appearance they are not disconcerted, but know exactly what remedy to use. These wise and prudent Sisters have found Peruna a never-failing safeguard. They realize that when a disease is of catarrhal nature, Peruna is the remedy. Dyspepsia and female weakness are considered by many to be entirely different diseases—that dyspepsia is catarrh of the stomach and female weakness is due to catarrh of the pelvic organs the Sisters are fully aware, consequently Peruna is their remedy for these very common and annoying diseases.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

AMBASSADOR WHITE DEFENDS THE KAISER

He Says That the Conduct of Germany Toward Us Was Excellent.

CLOUD IS NOW DISPELLED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

BERLIN, Feb. 21.—Andrew D. White, the American ambassador here, presiding tonight at an assemblage of 300 Americans, who celebrated Washington's birthday at the Kaiserhof by a musical entertainment followed by supper and a dance, said in an address:

"It has been insisted by more or less well meaning people in the United States that a dark cloud between the two countries really exists and that in the times of which ancient history makes mention, and especially during our Spanish war, the German government was somewhat hostile to the United States, or in some manner which nobody seems to be able to give with precision, the German government did something which it ought not to have done, and left undone something which it ought to have done.

German Conduct Excellent.

To this answer has been made, if I may be allowed here to refer to it by myself as one competent to express opinion on the subject, with the declaration that the conduct of the German government toward us during the Spanish war was excellent. The German government observed a strict neutrality and showed no unfriendly spirit. From first to last it never made any suggestions or proposals that embarrassed us in the slightest degree. In fact the conduct of the German government was all that we could desire it to be.

"Some self-constituted guardians of the welfare of the United States have insisted that, if not the imperial government, it was the honored and revered sovereign of the empire who spread this cloud over the relations of the two nations by promoting, or, if not promoting, by joining in a league to intervene and stop the war.

Cloud Now Dispelled.

"On this account various people have really made themselves very unhappy. Now, however, within a fortnight all this has been cleared away and it has been shown beyond a doubt that the revered and beloved sovereign of this country refused to take part in anything which could be construed as interference in the contest, and refused in such a manner as to show that he respected the motives and appreciated the feelings of the American government.

"Tonight, even at this very moment, other exhibitions of the good feeling between the German and American governments are taking place. Thanks to wireless telegraphy, messages of hearty good will are flashing to and from the Kronprinz Wilhelm, which bears the honored representative of the emperor to our shores. These messages go to all parts of our country; they also come from all parts of our country, for the mission of our royal guest is clearly seen to be one of peace and kindness

HESSIANS DEMAND THE REASONS FOR DIVORCE

They Want to Know Why Grand Duke and Duchess Have Parted.

WILL BE TOLD SECRETLY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

DARMSTADT, GRAND DUCHY OF HESSE, Feb. 21.—A caucus of the party leaders in the second chamber of the Hessian diet has requested the grand duke of Hesse to communicate to them his reason for obtaining a divorce from the grand duchess. The prime minister, Earl Rothe, in a conciliatory statement, intimated that the communication required would be made to the chamber behind closed doors.

The separation of the grand duke and grand duchess of Hesse was pronounced December 22, last, by the superior court of Darmstadt.

Ernest Ludwig, grand duke of Hesse, is the son of the Grand Duke Louis IV, and a cousin of the present emperor of Germany. His mother was Princess Alice, of England, a daughter of the late Queen Victoria. He is about 33 years old and was married, on April 19, 1894, to Princess Victoria of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, who is also a grand daughter of Queen Victoria. MURPHY WILL LEAVE MACHINE RANKS AT ONCE

Twentieth Ward Select Councilman to Be With the Citizens.

UPPERMAN MAY LOSE

Court Discovered a Difference of 14 Votes in Returns—J. O. Brown May Be Removed—Election Boards Have Been Summoned.

John A. Murphy, select councilman from the Twentieth ward, can no longer be classed as a machine man. He takes the big Larkin vote of Tuesday as notice that his constituents expect him to represent them, and not Senator William Flinn.

Mr. Murphy says that henceforth he will be independent. He believes that an anti-machine man will be elected president of select council, and such a man will receive his vote. The overwhelming victory of the Citizens party in the Twentieth ward is sufficient evidence for him that the people he represents desire a change. He says that he will oppose every attempt to railroad legislation through councils between now and April 1. There is a possibility that Mr. Murphy will be a candidate for president of select council.

Conner Was Troublesome.

Mr. Murphy is chairman of the Republican committee in the Twentieth ward. During the recent campaign S. P. Conner, the delinquent tax collector, endeavored to assume the leadership of the ward for the machine. On one occasion he issued a circular and signed it as "chairman." Murphy did not like this, nor a number of things that Conner tried to do. There was constant friction. Friends of Murphy say that if Conner tries to figure in ward politics in the future he will find a number of people ready to do battle with him.

The official count may show that John E. Wainwright has been elected select councilman from the Fifteenth ward. John Upperman, the present machine representative, is claiming the seat by a majority of three votes.

Difference of 14 Votes.

Yesterday the returning board found that there were 14 votes recorded upon both the return sheets and the triplicate sheet of the first district for Upperman that did not appear on the tally received by the court. If it is found that he is not entitled to these votes, his total will be cut down to 169 in the district, and Wainwright will win. The election board has been summoned to explain its action in court this morning. Should the 14 votes be thrown out, Upperman will be put in the position of contestant.

Even if Upperman does retain his seat, the anti-machine forces can organize select council. They have 21 votes, or a majority of two. It is probable that this surplus will be increased. There are other councilmen who are placed in the same position as Mr. Murphy. Whether they will have the same degree of good sense and read the handwriting remains to be developed.

More Contests Possible.

It is possible that the election of James W. Piatt, select councilman from the Second ward, will be contested by William Long, the Citizens candidate. There were many irregularities and these are now being investigated. There are 30 days in which to institute proceedings. Before this time has expired the testimony will have been carefully sifted.

The machine men are talking of contesting the seat of F. J. Donahoe of the Fourth ward. He was elected select councilman by the Citizens party. The machine will attack him on the ground that he is not eligible, the charter containing the provision that a select councilman must have lived in the ward five years previous to his election. His opponents hold that he only returned to the city last April after an absence of several years. Donahoe is said to be able to show that he never lost his residence in the city.

Machine Would Not Gain.

Should he lose his seat, a special election will have to be held. The machine would not gain anything, as another Citizens party man would be elected.

The machine leaders are worried about the make-up of the Citizens party county ticket. Agents are at work trying to learn who will be named. The opponents of the ring have a number of strong men in mind, but it is too early to name any of them. The work of organizing the county will be completed first.

Some politicians would not be surprised if Gov. Stone would remove Recorder J. O. Brown. They say that Stone may decide that if he puts in a man who is not tainted with Flinnism he may have a chance of getting control. Stone is in power for just about a year, and there is no telling what he may attempt. It is said that the governor resents the statements of Flinn and Brown that he was the cause of the machine's defeat.

Policeman Sued.

Officer William Pidgeon has been sued for assault and battery before Alderman John Martin by C. E. Whitesides of the Citizens committee. Pidgeon gave bail for a hearing Monday. Whitesides alleges that while leaving the polling place of the Second district of the Seventh ward Tuesday he was attacked by the policeman.

The election officers of the Ninth district of the Fourteenth ward have been summoned into court this morning. This is the district, where it is claimed the ballot box was stuffed. These boards were also ordered to appear: The Ninth, Eleventh and Fourteenth districts of the Thirteenth ward; Second, Third and Ninth of the Fourteenth ward; First and Second of the Fifteenth ward; Eighth, of the Sixteenth ward; Second and Third of the Seventeenth ward; Second and Third, of the Eighteenth ward, and the Eighth district of the Twenty-first ward.

Citizens Will Celebrate.

The returning board yesterday finished the count up to the Twenty-second ward, but gave out no figures.

It is expected that hundreds of men will participate this evening in the union jollification of the Citizens of the Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth and Twenty-seventh wards. They will celebrate the victory of Tuesday by a monster parade. Anton Schuler of the Twenty-fourth ward will be the chief marshal. The following is the route: Twenty-eighth street to Carson, to Tenth, to Sarah, to Twenty-seventh, to Jane, to Twenty-eighth, to Sarah, to Thirtieth, to Carson, to Thirty-third, to McClurg, to Thirty-second to Carson.

Plague Among Track-Layers.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Feb. 21.—(Special.) The plague of spinal menengitis is spreading among the laborers on the New Castle & Sharon electric line, who are located at Harbor Bridge, four miles from this city. One man died there early this morning, making the fourth death within a few days. Two others are now so seriously ill that they are not expected to live. A cause of the rapid spread of the disease is the way in which the men live, crowded together in quarters not fit for swine.

GIRLS PLAYED A VERY FINE GAME

GENEVA AND HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS SEEK BASKETBALL HONORS.

Men Were Barred from the Room, but a Professor Finally Had to Be Called in to Act as Referee—Beaver Falls Maidens Won.

The first inter-urban basket ball match ever played in Pittsburgh by teams of girls was the center of tremendous interest at the Central high school last night. Geneva college now claims the championship of Western Pennsylvania by a score of 16 to 9 over the high school five.

The actual score is in doubt. There was so much excitement during the game that few of the contestants are able to speak with any degree of certainty about the outcome.

Arrangements had been made for the presence of the professors of the high school and a very few elect men at the game. The girls were so frightened when the time for play came, however, that the doors of the chapel, where the contest was waged, were bolted in the midst of a popular panic. Neither love nor money could gain a man admittance after that. Ten cents was the price of admission, but offers of $5 were refused. Even youngsters in knee breeches were kept without the pale.

Trouble Began Early.

Trouble began before the game did. It was found that there was but one girl present that knew enough about the game to act as an official. Finally, under stress of necessity, Prof. Joseph H. Thompson of Geneva and coach of the team from that school, was decided upon for referee. He was the only man present, but he had to serve blindfolded through the first half and wear blue glasses during the second.

When the game did start some of the girls seemed at a loss what to do with the ball and attempted to roll it along the floor by hand and drop it in the basket while standing on a chair. When the referee explained that the ball must be passed they were at a loss how to proceed. As a rule they ran up and handed it to one another, displaying anxiety to get rid of it as quickly as possible.

The high school girls had discovered a rule in force in some eastern women's colleges by which the player was allowed to stand inanimate with the ball, which could not be touched by the opposing side.

Custom Broken Up.

The Geneva girls, under instruction of their coach, broke this up, by one standing for ten minutes without moving, while the high school found by a search of the rule book that there was no regulation compelling passing under the eastern code and that the game might last till spring unless hurried.

The high school team protested the game, claiming that a stepladder was used in scoring the goals in the first half and that the majority in the second half were carried up stairs and dropped in from the gallery. The line up was:

Geneva College—18.		High School—9.
Miss Farris	Forward	Miss Harner
Miss Walker	Forward	Miss Campbell

Miss Elsey	Guard	Miss Roberts

WESTMINSTER BEATEN.

Allegheny Team Won By Fast and Clever Work.

MEADVILLE, PA., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—Allegheny won from Westminster tonight, 28 to 5. The visitors did not land a field goal. The play by both teams was good, but Allegheny's team work placed them in the lead. Jackson started the scoring, landing a basket in two passes. Taylor made 4 and Jackson 3, making the score 21 to 5. The second half was just as fast, Westminster playing a hard, fast game, but was not allowed to shoot. Lineup:

Lambie	Center	Jackson
Kennedy	Guard	Mellon
Stewart	Guard	Leffingwell

W. U. P. Sophomores Won.

The Sophomore class basket ball team of W. U. P. defeated the Freshmen five Friday afternoon by the overwhelming score of 42 to 14. The features of the game were the passing of both teams and the goal throwing of the Sophomore forwards. Irvin throwing seven goals and Gormley five. The final score was:

Wagner's Team a Winner.

Honus Wagner's Carnegie basketball team wiped up the floor at Carnegie last night with the Rossiyn Indians, defeating that team by a score of 35 to 6. The feature of the contest was the field goal shooting of Wagner and Marthens.

Bellefield Beat East Liberty.

The East Liberty Basketball team, strengthened by a couple of the D. C. & A. C. stars, were defeated by the Bellefield league team at Masonic hall, Allegheny, last night by a score of 25 to 16. Both teams played good ball. Bellefield worked well together and had no trouble winning out by a comfortable margin. Score and lineup:

WILL SEND AFTER URICK.

Cleveland Police Have Discovered That He Is Wanted There.

The police of Cleveland do want Stephen Urick, although they did not know it until it was telegraphed that he was under arrest in Braddock, and even then did not find it out for several hours. At the same time Urick did not know that he did not Bill his wife when he tried to last Tuesday.

Urick appeared in Braddock on Thursday morning, and going to the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Stephen Socof, in Washington avenue, told her that when he went home from work on Tuesday night he had found a man in the house, that there was a fight, during which he had killed his wife by stabbing her five times, and had been stabbed in the left shoulder by the visitor.

It appears that Urick did not kill his wife as he thought. She recovered consciousness, and some friends secured the services of a physician and had her wounds dressed. For reasons probably best known to the woman she kept the assault of her husband from being known, and Urick might now be free if he had not got so cold in the corner of an ore car that he had to seek shelter. An officer will come from Cleveland today to take him back to the scene of his crime.

GOD GAVE US FIVE SENSES.

Seeing, Hearing, Smelling, Tasting and Feeling—Four of These Senses Are Often Impaired and Even Destroyed by Disease.

Doctors Byers and Tucker are daily brought in contact with many patients suffering from impairment of four of these senses from disease.

The eyes inflamed, sore and red, lids granulated, impaired sight.

The nostrils filled with foul scabs and discharging sores, or stuffed up.

EYES EXAMINED FREE.

Restoring Diseased Eyes.

The ears affected with roaring, buzzing and hissing noises, and the hearing either greatly impaired or entirely destroyed.

The delicate senses of smell and taste also either impaired or entirely lost, the trouble often extending to the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs.

The patients, from their continued blowing, hawking and spitting, and emitting foul odors, become objects of misery to themselves and loathing to their more healthy friends and associates.

How can a parent see a child grow up with these senses impaired or destroyed and become an object of misery to itself and loathing to its comrades, when, by proper treatment at the proper time, all this could be prevented?

All these conditions are curable if patients only place themselves under the care of specialists who have the necessary experience and facilities for treatment. Doctors Byers and Tucker have been treating these troubles over 14 years. They have attained a scientific mastery over these diseases. Their fees are the lowest in existence at which first-class treatment can be furnished.

Important Business Letter Involving the Payment of $25,000 Held Up by Lawyer Patrick's Orders—Valet Jones Continues Testimony.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—When the trial of Albert T. Patrick, accused of the murder of William M. Rice, was resumed today Charles F. Jones, who was his personal attendant and clerk, continued his testimony. He identified copies of telegrams he sent to Texas announcing Rice's death.

Mr. Osborne put in evidence a large bundle of papers and telegrams. Jones identified the different papers, one by one, and said he had shown all, or carbon copies of them, to Patrick prior to the death of Mr. Rice. One letter, dated September 18, 1900, in Mr. Rice's handwriting, to Henry Oliver, agreed to advance $25,000 for the reconstruction of the oil plant. Jones said the letter was held back by him at Patrick's direction.

Rice's Orders Disobeyed.

"Patrick said if the latter was sent," the witness continued, "Mr. Oliver would draw for the money and his draft would take all the cash to Mr. Rice's credit in the New York bank."

Jones said he told Patrick Mr. Rice seemed anxious to rebuild the works and that he had telegraphed authority to the secretary of the oil company to draw upon him for $25,000. To this Patrick replied:

"We must get Rice out of the way. Whatever you do, Jones, Rice must not be here Monday."

"I told him," continued the witness, "that the first draft was presented Saturday and that I had told the messenger Mr. Rice was too ill to attend to business and that it must wait until Monday."

Patrick Remained Away.

Jones explained that Patrick kept away from the Rice apartments for ten days prior to Mr. Rice's death. "He said," Jones explained, "that as the bulk of Mr. Rice's property was left to him, it would not do for him to be on the premises if there were any inquiry into the murder—the death, I mean."

Jones told of the plans for cremation. The much-talked of cremation letter, Jones said, he wrote from a draft prepared by Patrick. He identified the letter and said he gave it, unsigned, to Patrick. It was signed when he next saw it in the possession of Capt. Baker.

"Patrick told me," the witness said, "that he wanted Mr. Rice's body cremated to hide all traces of drugs. Then he said he would have the ashes buried in Milwaukee beside his wife, so as to satisfy the relatives."

Jones said Patrick communicated with him over the telephone by the name of Swift, Short or Curtis. He told again of giving Patrick blank checks from Mr. Rice's check book and filling them out ready for signature. Patrick told him, he said, they would need some ready money in case of Mr. Rice's death.

Jones Prepared the Way.

"I told Patrick," Jones said, "not to present the checks of Swenson's. I told him they would be sure to call up on the telephone and make an investigation. He said that he would not use them, but after that he changed his mind and said he would use them anyway. I had prepared the Fifth Avenue Trust Company for the checks on them by asking for a statement on September 15, and telling the secretary that Mr. Rice intended drawing some large checks in a few days."

Jones told of his trip to police headquarters and reported to Patrick all he said there, and later Short and Meyer and Dr. Curry had a conference with Patrick in a rear room of the Rice apartment. One week later, Jones said, he and Patrick were arrested.

THE PRESIDENT'S SON ON THE WAY TO WASHINGTON

Decision Suddenly Made at Lunch and the Groton Doctor Reluctantly Consents.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

GROTON, MASS., Feb. 21.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., who has been ill with pneumonia for two weeks in the Groton school infirmary, is bound for Washington tonight. Bundled to his eyes with blankets, he was taken in a covered sleigh from the infirmary to the special train which had been in readiness at the Groton station for several days. He was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and Dr. P. M. Rixey, while in another conveyance was Miss Roosevelt. A light snow was falling at the time.

The decision to take young Roosevelt to Washington was made during lunch at 1 o'clock. Dr. Warren, the school physician, all the morning had been opposed to a change of the patient at this time and under the threatening weather conditions. Dr. Rixey gave his opinion that the boy would stand the journey all right, and that the weather at this time is probably no worse than it would be tomorrow, or possibly Sunday, judging from the weather forecast. At lunch Dr. Warren reluctantly consented to allow the patient's removal after it had been pointed out that if a big storm should come as predicted, his removal might be prevented for several days.

WORCESTER, MASS., Feb. 21.—Dr. Rixey informed a correspondent that the boy is standing the journey well, as the car is perfectly comfortable. A large crowd was at the Union station to see the members of the party, but Dr. Rixey was the only one who showed himself. The members of the Roosevelt party drew the curtains to shield themselves from the gaze of the people.

Stove Plant Will Stay.

NEW CASTLE, Feb. 21.—(Special.)—Samuel R. Baldwin, a director of the Pittsburgh Stove and Range Company and manager of their plant in this city, is authority for the statement that the New Castle works will not be removed from this city to be consolidated with the other plants near Pittsburgh.

Life Sentence for Murder.

DES MOINES, IA., Feb. 21.—Matt Hunter, convicted of murder in the second degree, was given a life sentence by Judge Paris at Mount Ayr today for the murder of Homer Holland, on November 9 last. The murder was the result of a quarrel over a game of "craps." Holland was a noted college athlete.

The report was officially denied last night for the Pittsburgh Coal Company and characterized as a "fake." Col. J. B. Finley, president of the Monongahela company, said that he knows nothing of such a deal.

A Baby's Birth

is very much like the blossoming of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depends entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. They should be spared all worry and anxiety. They should eat plenty of good nourishing food and take gentle exercises. This will go a long way toward preserving their health and their beauty as well as that of the little one to come. But to be absolutely sure of a short and painless labor they should use regularly during the months of gestation. This is a simple liniment, which is to be applied externally. It gives strength and vigor to the muscles and prevents all of the discomforts of pregnancy, which women used to think were absolutely necessary. When Mother's Friend is used there is no danger whatever.

WELL KNOWN FACT

That any Dental Work done by Urling Bros. will be the very best, and prove satisfactory in every way—otherwise we are anxious to make it right and have you perfectly satisfied without any further cost. During our 15 years' practice here we have constantly pursued this course, and by it make a friend and everlasting patient of each person we do work for; that is why we have the largest dental business in the state, excepting none. The old saying is, "It's easy to get a customer, but hard to keep him." By our method, work and price, we keep them, and they send others. If you have a kick please say so to Dr. Urling or his cashier before you utter a word to your friends; if we refuse to make it right, then will be time enough to complain outside. To tell the truth, we seldom have a complaint, which goes to show how well we please everybody.

FOURTEEN PAGES.

Reformers Control Councils.

John Upperman's apparent majority in the Fifteenth ward has been wiped out and a majority of eleven adverse to him recorded by the discovery of the returning board that the return sheet for the First district of the ward showed fourteen votes for Upperman more than appeared on the tally sheet. This gives Wainwright the Citizens party candidate, the seat in select council, and it carries with it the control of select council by the anti-Stone combination. The returning board's discovery makes an important change in the situation and the disclosure of the difference between the tally sheet and the return sheet will cause some surprise and much comment adverse to the election officers responsible for it. Mr. Upperman may, of course, make a contest, but there is small prospect that any but the attorneys would be the gainers thereby. With the friends of reform in control of both branches of councils Pittsburgh is in a fair way to realize the benefits of popular self-government in municipal affairs.

Franchises and Taxation.

The members of the outgoing councils have heard from the city election and know the will of the people. They should govern themselves accordingly if they desire to retain or regain any part of the popular favor. One issue of the campaign was the taxation of public service corporations as some return for the valuable franchises enjoyed by them. The outgoing municipal legislature knows what the people want, and, while it is not possible to give their wishes effect before the new councilmanic body comes into being, the present body will be utterly false to its public trust if it perverts its remaining representative powers to the uses of the corporations by adding to their free grants. There are ordinances now before councils making grants of the use of public streets to the Philadelphia company. These ordinances should not be passed by the present councils in opposition to the expressed will of the people. The present demands of the Philadelphia Company afford an opportunity for the city administration to treat with its officers for an equitable settlement of the question of the corporation's obligations to the city. The determination of the citizens of Pittsburgh to have such an adjustment should be respected. If the members of councils have the city's interest and their own future welfare at heart they will sidetrack the ordinances now before them that call for the free gift of the unincumbered streets and parts of streets. Nothing more should be given by councils until an agreement is reached in the matter of a tax on gross receipts.

Prince Henry.

Barring accident and unexpected delay Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of the emperor of Germany, will land at New York today, and thenceforward until the day of his departure there will be a round of sightseeing and festivities in honor of the distinguished visitor. A long and varied program has been arranged for the entertainment of the prince while in this country, and at all points in his itinerary there will be a cordial welcome.

International courtesy requires that unusual honors be paid the representative of one of the great nations of the world, but aside from this there is a well-defined purpose on the part of the entertainers of making a favorable impression on the person so honored. As Prince Henry stands near the German throne it is wise policy to make him acquainted with the greatness and resources of the United States, and nothing could serve this purpose better than a tour of the principal cities. This being the prince's first visit to America he will naturally be eager to see as much as possible of the country he has heard so much about, and it behooves his entertainers to make the sightseeing tour as comprehensive as time and circumstances will permit, for upon it will be based the report to be eventually submitted to the German emperor. For this reason it is hoped that the prince's stay in Pittsburgh will be extended to a day instead of the few minutes originally arranged, so that he may have an opportunity to see the world-famous industries of this city and vicinity.

The Business Situation.

The weekly statement issued by the associated banks of New York yesterday showed loans aggregating more than $936,000,000 and deposits of nearly $1,020,000,000. These totals have never been equaled in the history of the banks. They surpass by a considerable amount the large totals reported at the corresponding date a year ago, when preparations were being made to finance the United States Steel Corporation and the many railway and coal deals then pending. The requirements of stock market operators at that time were also unusually heavy. In the present instance the expansion is credited to preparations for financing projects of equal magnitude. The borrowings on account of mere speculators, however, are certainly smaller by half than last spring, and some portion of the increase in loans now reported is no doubt due to commercial and industrial activity. The clearing house returns thus far this year have shown that while exchanges have fallen off at New York, they have increased at other large centers, and the conclusion is justified that the volume of legitimate trade is greater than it was during the first quarter of 1901.

An incident of the week which attracted much attention in financial circles, but which has little or no bearing upon general business, was the announcement of Attorney General Knox that under instructions from President Roosevelt he would bring suit to dissolve the Northern Securities Company on account of the railroad mergers accomplished by that corporation being in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. The announcement caused a momentary disturbance in the stock market, because in the latter many values are based upon present or prospective combinations similar to the Northern Securities Company, but otherwise it was without effect.

The most notable transaction in the iron market was the purchase of 100,000 tons Bessemer pig at $16 a ton, and a further slight advance in the price of the metal. It is estimated that fully 100,000 tons of iron and steel orders have been placed during the past few weeks by consumers in the United States with foreign producers, wholly because of the fact that home manufacturers are so overwhelmed with business that they could not guarantee delivery. In other industries improvement is noted. Last week it was in cotton goods. This week it extends to woolen manufactures.

Money market conditions continue fairly easy. There were no gold exports during the week, although sterling exchange advanced to a point at which shipments were made on the last movement. Foreign banks increased their reserves during the week, and their discount rates are now below the average for months past. The opening of bids for $3,000,000 3½ per cent corporate stock of New York city demonstrated the abundance of money available for safe investments. There were 117 bidders for the stock, amounting in the aggregate to nearly $26,000,000, and the loan was awarded at a rate which will net the investor less than 3.20 per cent. Thus, while speculative values have been depressed, there has been no depreciation in the value of prime investments and no diminution in the amount of money available therefor.

Washington's Birthday.

Today the nation celebrates the anniversary of George Washington's birth. It is called upon to commemorate the nativity of not merely the most illustrious figure in our history, but one of the greatest men the world has seen and recognized. A man cannot be a great soldier without being great in many other respects. Washington was not one of those architects who built better than they knew. He had a prophetic vision of the future of his country. He was the greatest man among his contemporaries, and it was an epoch of great men. They share, of course, in the glory of the revolution, the framing of the constitution and in laying the foundation of the republic, but not one of them in their achievements or their renown impinges upon Washington's place in the story of his country and in the history of the world.

What Ails Spain?

Discontent is so general in Spain and has been for a long time so widespread and deepseated that for several years observers of events have been wondering whether revolution be impending in that country. Within 12 months there has been rioting, more or less severe, not only in Barcelona, but also in Madrid, Valencia, Granada, Saragossa, Valladolid, Alicante and other cities. The present disturbances repeat, in a more aggravated form, those of the early days of last year, when the outbreaks were attributed to the displeasure of the people over the marriage of the Princess des Asturias to Count Don Carlos de Bourbon. The present dynasty is unpopular in Spain and the marriage of the king's sister with a reactionary prince was looked on with deep disfavor, because she would succeed to the throne in case of Alfonso's death.

Added to dissatisfaction with the royal family there are depression of trade and a strong movement against the church. Then, too, anarchical doctrines have permeated the working classes in Barcelona and other manufacturing and commercial centers, and the Carlists are always ready to take advantage of times of unrest. The recent strikes have attracted to Spain many anarchists from other countries, who are eager to uproot the social order anywhere, and think they see a favorable opportunity to begin in that troubled kingdom. Their machinations in Spain are nothing new. In 1896 they threw a bomb into a crowd of persons taking part in a religious procession in Barcelona, killing 11 and wounding 40, mostly women and children. For a long time the authorities have felt the necessity for constant preparation to deal with an uprising. Gen. Weyler has been keeping the peace with an iron hand, and he finds it a difficult task.

The Spanish nature is imbued with the same restlessness that keeps the Central and Southern American republics in a condition of turmoil. Senor Jose Echegaray made a lucid explanation of the ailment of Spain in an address delivered a year ago, an explanation as frank as it was lucid. "We are guilty of an incurable social indiscipline," said he. "Nobody agrees with anybody else, and each often ends by inconsistency with himself. The variety of our conceptions exceeds perhaps that of any other people of Europe, but it is variety in disorder. We are like a piano without pedals, all the strings vibrating at once, and confusion reigns instead of harmony."

This is an accurate diagnosis of Spain's condition, and it is not reassuring to hear it called incurable by one acquainted with the symptoms.

When the Philadelphia Inquirer says the election in Pittsburgh "will have just about as much effect on the governorship as a turtle rolling off a log in a swamp would have," it does not voice the opinion of its political friends, and we doubt whether it says what it thinks. We suspect it is merely continuing the policy of trying to fool the people. It is time to stop such efforts. The people are wide awake and will not be fooled. The Inquirer should make up its mind to deal with public sentiment as it is, and not as it would have it. By public sentiment we mean republican sentiment. The vote in Pittsburgh on Tuesday was intended as a repudiation of Gov. Stone and all who adhere to him. It is a notice to the Republican party and has a real bearing on the governorship. The contest was not, as the Inquirer declares, "a purely mercenary one," but was, on the contrary, a contest against a mercenary policy in public affairs, in which the foes of that policy won.

Rankin citizens are to be sincerely congratulated over the completion and successful dedication of the new borough public school building in that town. The building is described as a thoroughly modern and up-to-date structure with all the modern conveniences of such buildings. The progress and advancement of a community are very accurately measured by the interest taken in educational affairs, and according to this standard Rankin's pride in her new school building is justified and indicates an order of citizenship that will contribute to the future permanency and growth of the community.

The condition of the streets yesterday morning was an object lesson in gladiation. A combination of meterological conditions happily rare seemed to have conspired to make matters as dangerous and uncomfortable for traffic as it is possible to conceive. Unfortunately there were numerous accidents, some serious, some trivial. On the whole it is some consolation that matters were no worse.

As Prince Henry has decided to speak English exclusively while in America an interpreter will have to be provided for him should he tarry long in Hoboken.

The young King Alfonso of Spain must be a nervy chap to look forward with any degree of composure to the job he will undertake in May.

The D. A. R. convention in Washington had quite a warm time of it, but what could you expect? They had congress as an example.

Colombia has raised the rent before the tenant has decided whether he will move in.

It is to be hoped that Governor Stone's clipping bureau includes the Pittsburgh Times.

New York will have George Washington and Prince Henry both on its hands today.

Cherry trees and hatchets will be given due prominence in the oratory today.

Wonder if Gov. Stone sat up to hear the election returns from Pittsburgh?

SLUSHY, SHAME-FACED CITY AWAITS PRINCE HENRY

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Feb. 21.

Coming through a miserable storm, the Kronprinz Wilhelm, with Prince Henry on board, is nearing New York tonight. There are many things we would rather not show the prince, and one of the things is an old-fashioned February New York combined snow, rain, sleet and wind storm. The condition of the streets in this city tonight beggars description. It is slippery, slushy and muddy, and there is no prospect of anything better. It is not likely that Prince Henry will get into port tomorrow, since the Kronprinz Wilhelm had not been picked up by wireless telegraph in the evening, and it is, perhaps, as well that he will not get here so soon as was expected. Other ships, including the Teutonic, which got in today, a day late, have had a tempestuous time of it on the Atlantic, and it is evident that the Kronprinz Wilhelm has been having her own troubles. The arrangements for the reception of Prince Henry have been made on such close schedule that a delay of two or three days, or even 24 hours, would seriously upset all plans made for his entertainment, and it might be necessary to leave out a dinner or two which has been projected in his honor. That there is the greatest interest taken in his visit, can be seen on all hands. One indication is the number of photographs of the young man to be remarked everywhere. Some of the department stores have their show windows filled with pictures of the prince, with a number of those of Alice Roosevelt interspersed. There is not another young woman in the United States more in the public eye than this young daughter of the president, and so many of her photographs are on exhibition in this city that she could hardly walk or ride along Broadway without being recognized at every step. All of the ill-natured comment on the prince's visit—and there was much of it here when the fact that he was to come was first made known—has died away, and he will be sure of a friendly greeting from everyone. Tonight the only question on the public mind is whether the Kronprinz Wilhelm may have suffered in the hurricane at sea to such an extent that she will be several days late. Happily, there are no fears as to her ultimate arrival in safety.

One Way to Get Rid of a Witness.

One way to get rid of a witness against policemen charged with misdemeanors, is to club the life out of him. The man McAuliffe, who was picked up on Sunday with a fractured skull, a broken nose and other injuries, which, together, caused his death, may have been killed accidentally, but there is a widely disseminated impression here that he might have been got out of the way by friends of a policeman under indictment, because he (the deceased) would have been the principal witness against the accused man. It may turn out that these suspicions are unfounded, but it would be useless to deny that they are rife. There may be arrests for murder in the case, and there may not; but it is the most sensational happening in its way that New York has had for many a long day.

A Blue-Coated Hero With Nerve.

Nerve was a requisite for the policeman who jumped into the North river this noon. His object was to save a woman, and he did it. Incidentally, he had to battle with lumps of ice and take a strong chance of pneumonia, for the river is in a desperately uncomfortable condition. But the policeman, whose name is Patrick J. Kelly, merely remarked, in answer to the wondering admiration of people on the pier: "Pshaw! I do not see what the fuss is about. Wouldn't any man jump in after a woman?"

Women Vote for Sunday Saloons.

Women in this city have voted, by a large majority, for the opening of saloons on Sunday in New York. It was at a meeting of the League for Political Education today, and when a vote was taken on the subject the vote stood 35 to 8 in favor of open saloons on Sunday. This is a surprise to most people, for it has always been supposed that women were inexorably opposed to liquor selling on Sunday. Of course, the League for Political Education embraces only a small number of the women of Greater New York, but their vote today is significant. The reasons given for desiring open saloons on Sunday are the old ones that liquor will be sold on that day anyhow, and it is better that it should be done openly; and, again, that the closing of saloons, when so many persons want to buy liquor, is an unwarrantable interference with personal liberty.

Imperial Wreaths for Grant's Tomb.

Florists are busy on the two immense wreaths to be placed on Gen. Grant's grave by Prince Henry when he visits the Riverside sarcophagus. One will be from the prince himself, and the other from the kaiser. Both are being made in New York. They are of American beauties, lilies of the valley and purple orchids. The centers will be filled with floral crowns on which will be the date, "February 23, 1902," and the initials, "W. I. R."—William Imperiator Rex.

A Fire to Be Proud Of.

Williamsburg had its big fire today. The trouble began in a varnish warehouse and extended over several blocks. While the fire is nothing like so disastrous as that at Paterson, it is bad enough for Williamsburg, and there is a feeling of local pride over there. It is not often anything very big happens in that comparatively unexplored part of Brooklyn and a $400,000 fire is not to be despised.

Mrs. O. Mills' Dinner to Young Men.

Mrs. Ogden Mills will give a Washington's birthday party tomorrow at Shaatsburg to a number of the young men of the smart set. A special train departed this afternoon and in spite of the beastly weather there was such a bustle at the New York Central depot as has not been seen since the Christmas holidays. There will be other social functions here tomorrow, but the Ogden Mills affair is talked about more than any other.

Body Guard for Prince Henry.

Although Ambassador von Holleben denies that any threatening letters against the prince have been received by him, it is believed in some circles that this is one of the reasons for maintaining so extraordinary a guard around the kaiser's brother, who will be so hedged about that the public will see but very little of him. Police, detectives, secret service men, militia and all guards of honor will be ready with bullets.

Decorated for the Prince.

Irving Place theater, where Prince Henry will hear the gala performance prepared by Manager Conreid tomorrow night, has been transformed into a bower of floral beauty and electric lights. Four hundred American Beauty roses decorate the royal box. Other flowers and palms make the place look like fairyland. German and American eagles, flags and pictures abound. The prince will enter the theater through a specially cut entrance.

The Boothlack Millionaire.

Tony the boothlack has become a millionaire because he was smart enough to see that men like to be comfortable while they are having their shoes cleaned. He was a newsboy along Park row about a dozen years ago. Today he is worth considerably more than $1,000,000. He has "shoeblack parlors" all over the city, with half a dozen men working in each. Tony may have shined the shoes of his customers at one time in his career, but no one would think of asking the well-dressed, prosperous-looking man to kneel down with shoe brushes in his hands nowadays. Tony owns fast horses and other luxuries of the well-to-do, but he is not above attending to the details of his business, and he is in the midst of a lawsuit to protect his title of "Tony the Boothlack" from a pirate who is trying to make money under what is now a valuable trademark. There is only one "Tony the Boothlack," says the original Tony, "and I'm him."

The Storms Effect on the Mail.

A heavy storm like that of today has many and diversified effects. One of the consequences of the snow and slush and sleet and wind today was that the mails this afternoon closed earlier than usual. It was hard for the wagons to get from the postoffice building to the railroad station on account of the bad going, and they required from a quarter to half an hour more time. Many a business man missed the evening mail with his batch of letters and the annoyance was one of the subjects discussed comfortably in cafes and clubs tonight over fragrant hot drinks and amid clouds of cigar smoke. This was just the night to stay indoors, with a cigar and a few congenial companions, and the hotel cafes profited by the storm more than any other class.

Pennsylvania Eggs in New York.

We are getting eggs from far away, and they are not cheap. They come from Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Ohio, Michigan and Illinois. The hens of these states are responding promptly to the call. The bulk of the supply is coming from Pennsylvania, and poultry owners in the Keystone state are reaping big profits from the storm. Today at Washington market the best eggs were selling at an average price of 40 cents a dozen. Some of the stands tilted the price a little and upper New York is paying 45 and 50 cents a dozen. Prices threaten to go higher.

Vienna Cafe on a Steamship.

A Vienna cafe is the newest luxury on big ocean-going steamers. The big Deutschland has had a grill room for a long time, and it has been a popular institution ever since it came into existence. The Vienna cafe, with its musical appurtenances, is to be established on the ship when it is overhauled for the coming summer season and it is probable that several of the other liners will follow suit.

Benefit for Haverley's Widow.

Monday afternoon, March 10, has been selected by Messrs. Primrose and Dockstader for the benefit to be given for the widow and daughter of the late Col. John Haverly, the pioneer manager of minstrelsy. Manager Hammerstein has donated the use of the Victoria theater for the occasion and every endeavor is being made to make the affair a success. Responses are coming to Manager Decker of the Primrose and Dockstader minstrels, who is engineering the affair, from all over the country.

Who Will Pilot the Prince.

New York pilots tonight were discussing the question as to which one of their number will pilot Prince Henry to the pier at West Thirty-fourth street when the Kronprinz Wilhelm arrives. An impression has prevailed that a special man would be detailed for this duty, but such is not the case. David A. Nash, secretary of the commission of pilots, said that no such arrangements of this nature have been made, or could be made, as it would be contrary to law. "No," he remarked, "Prince Henry will have to come through the dangers of the bay under the care of a pilot who will assume that duty in quite the ordinary way. Who the man will be it is impossible to foretell."

Not Very Cheering.

From the Bradford Record.

Election returns from Pittsburgh do not look very cheering for Elkin. P. S.—Neither do they for Gov. Stone.

PERSONALS.

George W. Sampson of Williamsport is a guest of the Henry. Mr. Sampson is interested in the candy business. Last night, however, he was especially interested in his home city, and particularly anxious to hear of his family's safety. "I've just received a wire that all's well," he said to a reporter. "You see, we are threatened by a big uprising of the waters just as you are here. In fact, the Susquehanna is at present swelling rapidly and the thaw on the mountains will make it dangerous. The citizens are taking precautions about the river fronts, but with six or seven feet of snow melting in the mountains and the river now rising beyond its gauge there is a possibility of as big a flood as that of '91. Then the entire south side of the city was under water. The logging season, fortunately, is over and there can be no great beds of logs to float down and damage property."

William Dall, Charles Fath and John T. Gill of Cleveland, directors of the Ohio Construction Company, are at the Henry. They are here to place their bids on the plans for filtration. "We have our bonds filled out and complied with every ruling," said Mr. Dall, "and think we can give the city as fair rates and perfect work as any constructing company in the business." Mr. Dall stated that the company proposes to build a steel plant along Lake Erie this summer, and will visit some of the larger mills to get ideas before leaving the city.

The alumni of Lafayette college banqueted at the Henry last night; also the alumni of the West Penn Medical college. Both organizations were out in full and spent a pleasant night telling reminiscences of collegiate days. President Ethelbert D. Warfield of Lafayette was to have been present, but at the last moment he wired his regrets, stating that his mother had taken suddenly ill.

H. M. Cutshall of Mendville, who has been spending the winter in Southern California, was registered at the Seventh Avenue hotel. He reports the orange crop of that section large, with a slight injury from frosts. The section finds great praise from the Pennsylvanian. Mr. Cutshall is connected with the Pure Food department of this state.

Bishop B. W. Arnett of the African Methodist Episcopal church passed through this city last night en route to Washington, D. C. Bishop Arnett is much interested in the Wilberforce university, which is doing a remarkable work for the uplifting of the colored race.

The advisory board of the Master Carand Locomotive Painters of America will convene this morning in the parlors of the Hotel Lincoln. There will be about 35 present.

H. W. Feenan of Toronto, Canada, is a guest of the Anderson. Mr. Feenan is a director of the Canadian Fisheries Company.

Dr. N. C. Schaefer, state superintendent of education, registered at the Seventh Avenue last night.

A Lesson for Ringsters.

From the Charleroi Mail.

The Stone-Flinn gang of conglomerate, political bedlellows, recently crystallized for common political pelf and downright plunder of an already great and growing city, presumed entirely too much upon the toleration of the people of party fealty and at a particular time when party principles, as now, are by no means in any manner at stake. Unexpectedly they have at last placed the final straw upon the camel's back to such an extent that a Waterloo defeat is all that is now left to sadly confront them as a result of their ill-timed tactics. The result of yesterday's election in detail is nothing short of a sad commmentary upon ring rule, and the leaders have no doubt been taught a lesson that will prove of infinite advantage, not alone to themselves, but will serve as an object lesson to all that particular class of truckling politicians elsewhere throughout the commonwealth, who with highhanded effrontery have gone to such extremes in like direction as to cause honest men to hide their heads in shame at the enormity of their presumption. Pittsburgh can well rejoice that it is the second city to follow New York in the Herculean task of rebuking machine city government.

Leadership and Bossism.

From the Oil City Derrick.

The city of Pittsburgh has thrown off the shackles of ring rule and repudiate the Flinn combination by a heavy majority. It furnishes another illustration of the progress of independent thought among the people and should serve as a warning to all politicians who attempt to use their power for purely selfish ends. "Bossism" of the Flinn type may have its momentary triumphs, but its overthrow is certain to come sooner or later. True political leadership is based upon services performed to the people and something more permanent and lasting than mere ability to divide the spoils of office.

"Effectually Snowed Under"—With a "P. S."

From the Warren Mail.

The independent and indignant voters of Pittsburgh effectually snowed under the Stone-Flinn gang last Tuesday. The Democratic and Citizens nominee for controller was elected by about 15,000 majority, and a large number of the ring's councilmen were defeated.

P. S.—Gov. Stone didn't know it was loaded, but he is wiser since election.

An Early Boom.

From the Braddock News.

The result of the election in Pittsburgh Tuesday brings John B. Larkin prominently into line as a candidate for governor of Pennsylvania.

"Will this car take me to the Plaza?" asked the excited old lady of the plaid motorman.

"What are the conditions?" asked the old lady, still further perturbed.

"Did you get your lost dog back when you advertised?"

Society.

A VERY pretty Lenten social affair was the tea given by Mrs. William Blackstock Rodgers yesterday afternoon at her home in Stanton avenue, East End. The guests, who were invited by invitation, were chosen from among the younger girls and married women, who were asked to meet Miss Edson of Washington City, and Miss Bennet, whom she has been visiting the past two weeks. Miss Edson returns to Washington tonight, so the tea was a farewell entertainment. Miss Bennett's engagement to Miss Edson's brother was announced a short time ago. The wedding will take place in April and will be one of the Easter weddings.

Though informal, Mrs. Rodgers's tea was exceedingly pretty. The large house was decorated with flowers, and the dainty tea table was presided over by Mrs. W. Harry Brown and Mrs. Omar Scott Decker. Assisting the hostess and her two honor guests, were Mrs. Murray Verner, Mrs. John G. Bennett, Mrs. James Hammond, Mrs. John Hubbard, Mrs. Helen Hook Carroll, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. J. Rodgers McCreary, Mrs. John I. Shaw, Mrs. Richard Jennings, Mrs. John Jennings, Miss McCance, Miss Elkins and Miss Elizabeth Rodgers. In addition to the delightful informality of the tea was the fascination of palmistry for Mme. D'Ovia was to be found in one of the apratments and continually held a small court about her anxious to peep into the future. A small dinner party followed the tea.

Luncheon for a Bride-Elect.

Miss Margaret Aiken of North avenue, Allegheny, gave a luncheon yesterday, in honor of Miss Woodhull of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is visiting her, and Miss Mary Riter, whose wedding will take place next Thursday. Covers were laid for 13, the guests including Miss Riter, Miss Woodhull, Miss Clara Harrington of Minneapolis, Miss Janet B. Bull of San Francisco, and Miss Janet Stewart of Chambersburg, who are house guests of Miss Riter; Miss Sophia McCullin, Miss Bertha Fisher, Miss Edith Speer, Miss Ford and Miss Stella Ford, and Miss Elmore of California, who is visiting them, and Miss Agnes Arnold. The hour was 1:30 o'clock. The table was dainty in its decorations of spring flowers, yellow jonquils and English violets.

Miss Aiken's luncheon is the first of several gay little affairs for Miss Riter and the girls who will be her bridesmaids. This afternoon Miss Arnold gives a matinee theater party at the Alvin in their honor. Miss Clara Harrington came on several days ago and yesterday Miss Bull and Miss Stewart arrived. All three are staying at the Riter home, in Ellsworth avenue, Shadyside.

Mothers' Club Formed.

A most successful meeting was held in the Ninth ward school Thursday, February 20, resulting in the formation of a club of the mothers of the ward and the teachers of the school. The object of the club is that the teachers and parents may become better acquainted and by so doing acquire a better understanding of the pupils, resulting in a mutual betterment to the home and school. The club has 160 charter members, with Miss Josephine S. Sholes president, Mrs. Lillian M. Stofiel vice president and Miss Edith F. McDermott, secretary. Miss Sholes read a very interesting paper relative to the organization of the club. Refreshments were served and the club adjourned to meet the third Thursday in March.

Klein—Edwards.

The marriage of S. B. Edwards to Miss K. Klein of Salineville, O., formerly of East Liberty, took place at the residence of his brother-in-law, A. P. Naylor of McCandless avenue, on Tuesday evening, February 18. The wedding was a very quiet affair owing to the illness of the bridegroom's mother. Only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. The happy couple left for Florida the same evening and will be home to their friends after March 1.

A Sled Ride Postponed.

The thaw and rapid disappearance of the snow yesterday spoiled the fun planned by the Pennsylvania college girls. Last night was to have been a gala night for them, as they were to give a sled ride in honor of the seniors. It was to have been a frolic such as school girls enjoy. But the snow disappeared and the sled ride was of necessity postponed.

Friday evening, February 28, the Western university Glee club will give a concert in Dilworth hall before the students and faculty of the Pennsylvania College for Women. The concert will be followed by an informal reception in the college parlors.

Mary Bidwell Breed Honored.

Miss Mary Bidwell Breed, dean of the Women's College of Indiana university, has recently been elected a member of the academic committee of the alumnae of Bryn Mawr college. The alumnae, while not represented on the board of trustees of the college, exerts a strong influence on the policy of the institution through this committee which meets at the college at stated times. The committee consists of seven members, whose term of office is four years. Two members are elected for three consecutive years, the remaining odd or seventh member being elected every four years. Miss Breed is doubly honored, as she is the only member elected this year.

Applied for a Charter.

Preliminary steps have been taken in the application for a charter for the New Brighton Country club. The club, among whose incorporators will be William U. Follansbee, Harry A. Miller, Theodore A. Mothersill, Thomas L. Donaldson and W. H. Pfahl, Jr., was recently organized and has already secured the grounds of the Allegheny Country club in the Brighton road near High Bridge, Bellevue, the Allegheny Country club having purchased a fine club site in Sewickley. The golf links and tennis courts have been put in good condition and the house has been remodeled until it is well adapted to club use.

Card Parties of Yesterday.

Mrs. J. H. Armstrong of Wineblddle avenue, East End, entertained yesterday at cards.

Mrs. Samuel P. Conner gave a card party at her home in Atlantic avenue.

NOTES OF SOCIETY.

The Drill corps, Pittsburgh commandery No. 1, Knights Templar, gave a reception and dance last night in the South Highland auditorium.

Dickson Coyle was host last evening at dinner, covers being laid for 18. Later the party went to Duquesne garden.

The Cyclorama Cotillion club will hold its fifth dance Thursday evening, February 27, in Cyclorama parlors, Irwin and Beech avenues, Allegheny.

Star Circle, P. H. C., will open their new quarters in Telephone building, Sandusky street, Allegheny, Wednesday evening, February 26, with an open session and entertainment. A varied program will be presented and lunch will be served by the ladies. Members and friends of the order are cordially invited.

Passed from Power.

From the Meadville Star.

The passing from power of Senator Flinn's Pittsburgh political machine marks the successful conclusion of an effort which has often before been made to oust him from his position of control. The victory achieved by the Citizens' organization may be partly at least laid to Gov. Stone's door, not that he wanted to aid in the movement, but his course during the past few months forced enough of the voters to the conviction that the machine was an unbearable institution to bring success to the movement.

Victory for Clergy and Press.

From the New Castle Herald.

The Pittsburgh result was a victory for clergy and press. All but two newspapers fought the Stone-Flinn ticket, and Bishops Phelps and Whitehead were outspoken in their opposition to it.

THE MAN UP A TREE

From a High Viewpoint.

Hatchet-faced persons are entitled to no special consideration on Washington's birthday.

The cherry tree that the youthful George Washington chopped down was said to be an English one, but the honest boy never thought of urging that fact in extenuation.

River note—Ice will go lower.

Carrie Nation had a hatchet, too, but no one celebrates her birthday.

General Washington news ought to be more than usually trustworthy on the 22d of February.

Speaking of the governor, he W. A. S., but is not.

It is understood that Prince Henry put Chicago on his itinerary because he wished to see some of those justly celebrated university professors.

Prince Henry will visit the house of representatives, but Mr. Wheeler of Kentucky wishes it distinctly understood that it will be in direct opposition to his advice and consent.

The Daughters of the American Revolution still possess the fighting spirit of their grand-daddies.

The Boer representatives who object to the enlistment of Missouri mules in the British army overlook the fact that the burghers get some of them without paying the freight.

The rivers manifest an intention of making a run on their banks.

As the husband of Mme. Teilka is in Sofia and has not been arrested the Paris Temps will be constrained to guess again.

Of course it is the butcher's cleaver that is being used to cut prices in the Chicago meat war.

He Was Hurt.

The customer shook his head.

"I'm afraid," said he, "that you are misrepresenting the quality of the goods?"

The clerk was grieved.

"Do you think," he demanded, "that I would deceive you on Washington's birthday?"

In His Stead.

Mrs. Hammersmith—I suppose we have had the poultry show as a sort of compensation for being left out of the itinerary of the kaiser's brother.

Mr. Hammersmith—How could it be a compensation for that omission?

Mrs. Hammersmith—Why, we have had the hens instead of the Hennery.

An Opportunity Overlooked.

The Englishman was disposed to grant nearly everything that the American put forward in glorification of this country, for he had sojourned in the United States for several weeks with his eyes open. But at length he said:

"After all, I am not sure that the Americans deserve all the encomiums they receive on their energy and enterprise."

"In what particular are you doubtful?" asked the American.

"I am thinking of the abduction of Miss Stone, the missionary, and of the tiresome negotiations for her ransom."

"That wasn't our fault. What could we have done?"

"Well, I think that some enterprising Americans ought to have formed a syndicate and to have effected her release long ago, and then have taken her over the country on a lecture tour. Why, sir, people would have fought to hear her. The syndicate would soon have received its money back and the returns on its investment would have been enormous!"

SHINGTON'S PEERLESS PLACE IN ALL HISTORY

Patriot, Warrior, Statesman, Man of Affairs and Wise Counselor.

HAGUE SUGGESTS PEACE

The Palace in the Woods on Route of Teachers' Tour of Europe — Final Ruling on Eligibility of Substitute Teacher as Candidate.

The nation yesterday celebrated the birthday of George Washington, first in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his countrymen. One of the most conspicuous figures and most versatile character in all history, is Washington, soldier, statesman, engineer, farmer, patriot and philosopher. Americans have every right to be proud of the father of their country who rendered such distinguished service in the war for freedom and who gave so much wise advice for the future conduct of the republic to promote its peace and prosperity.

Americans abroad have no reason to hang their heads even in the presence of royalty, for every one is a sovereign in his own right. But there are many things in Europe from which the intelligent American may draw valuable lessons. Other peoples have had their achievements in art, architecture, literature and science, yea, even in statecraft.

Modern inventions have been drawing the nations closer together and into sympathetic relations. Steam and electricity have made peoples interdependent and have promoted peace on earth even as Washington might have wished. The peace conference at The Hague, instigated by the czar of Russia was an expression of the increasing desire of educated peoples to banish the horrors of war and avoid their terrible burdens of taxation which consume the energies if the industrial masses.

Speaking of The Hague is a reminder of the late efforts of Hollands prime minister, with the advice and consent of the young Queen Wilhelmina, to secure some basis on which negotiations might be opened for the termination of the deplorable war in South Africa. Those efforts have come to naught, because while the Boer could afford to surrender after his marvelous exhibition of heroism, and the Briton could afford to name some easier terms than unconditional surrender, both are so imbued with the bitterness of the struggle that neither will yield a point.

Where Peace Is Sought.

The accompanying illustration gives a view of the room of the prime minister in the palace at The Hague and a portrait of the pretty queen. The Hague is on the route of the grand tour of Europe offered to teachers of the public schools by The Pittsburg Gazette and The Chronicle Telegraph and the successful candidates may see the "palace in the woods." The Boer war may then be going on, as it is now, with varying fortune for the combatants, toward final extermination of the Afrikanders and the desolation of a rich domain. If it is it will not be the last of the womanly queen of Holland or her government.

The Hague is suggestive of peace. It is the government palace of a country that has been at peace with all the world for many years and is at all times peacefully disposed. It may be hoped the same spirit will spread far and wide.

Ruling Was Perfectly Clear.

Some time ago reply was made to a communication concerning the eligibility of substitute teachers. It was then stated that all such who had been actually teaching at any time during the term concurrent with the most liberal offer of The Pittsburg Gazette and Chronicle Telegraph were eligible under the original rules. Notwithstanding this plain statement a letter was received yesterday saying the ruling had been the opposite and complaining that a certain teacher's name was published in the recent list of candidates. The case of that candidate has been carefully investigated. As a substitute teacher in the district from which she announced she taught and was paid for several days, during the term concurrent with the generous offer of the European tour. There could be no doubt about eligibility under the circumstances which was in the plainest possible terms.

Rules to Be Observed.

Ballots must be voted in series; those of one series must be deposited before midnight of the day the succeeding series closes. They must be filled out legibly with full name of teacher, school where employed, town and county. They should be kept in good condition and sent in flat, not rolled or crushed. Votes not mutilated they will not be counted.

The tour will be of more than six weeks' duration. Starts at Pittsburg July 2; leaves New York July 5, by Atlantic transport line steamer; arrive London July 15; Antwerp, July 19; Brussels, July 20; Amsterdam, July 22; Cologne, July 24; Mayence, July 25; Heidelberg, July 26; Lucerne, July 28; The Rigi, July 29; Interlaken, July 30; Paris, August 1; London, August 10; Edinburgh, August 8; Glasgow, August 8; leave Glasgow by Anchor line steamer Columbia, August 9; expect to arrive in New York August 17.

Who Will Be Taken.

The party will be composed of 25 teachers of the public schools, i. e., persons engaged in teaching in schools supported by public funds. These will be appointed as follows: Twelve from the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, six from Allegheny county outside of the two cities and seven from those parts of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia outside of Allegheny county, our widest territory covered by the daily editorial circulation of The Pittsburgh Gazette and Chronicle Telegraph. They will be elected by the readers of these papers. Those having the largest votes in their respective divisions will be declared elected.

All expenses of the tour will be borne by The Pittsburgh Gazette and Chronicle Telegraph, and these papers will give each member of the party $60 in cash to gratify individual tastes. Representatives of the papers will accompany the party to arrange routes and look after the comfort of the guests.

The contest will close May 31, and the result will be announced as soon after all of the votes are in as possible. Sailors from The Pittsburgh Gazette and Chronicle Telegraph will count the votes each and every day. The Sunday Gazette will count for three votes each. The ballots will be found at the top of the second page in each issue, and attention is directed to the rules and conditions printed thereon. The whole ballot, including border, must be cut in.

THE THREE RIVERS.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 21.—The river at 6 p. m. marked 5.9 feet and falling slowly. Weather warmer, thawing rapidly. The ice was very light today and in small detached fields. Capt. John Carroll, Dayton, Ky., an old riverman, was amputated today, owing to symptoms of blood poisoning developing after a small scratch. The Alice Brown left her lower berth and went to Louisville for fuel. Pilot Al Pritchard of the steamer City of Pittsburgh has been missing since last Saturday. His family have fears of foul play. The Belle, Otto Mermet and the Val Collins left Buena Vista today, where they were laying up during the heavy flow of ice, and started for Point Pleasant, which place marks the head of navigation at the present time.

EVANSVILLE—River falling, stands 7.5 feet. Clear and warmer. Some ice still passing; no boats.

LOUISVILLE—River on a stand; canal, 4.4 feet; falls, 2.2 feet; foot of locks, 6.2 feet. Weather cloudy, moderating and threatening rain. Coal City cut her way to Twelve Mile Island. Loose ice passing away. Little or no ice in the harbor, caused by gorges above. No danger anticipated here when the rise and rush comes.

STEUBENVILLE, O.—River 7 feet and rising, due to back water. Weather cloudy and cold. Below Mingo Junction the ice is gorged high and deep. It is closed up above this city.

OIL CITY, PA.—River 3 feet 3 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy and mild. No rain today.

WARREN, PA.—River nine-tenths foot. Weather cloudy and cold.

POINT PLEASANT, W. VA.—River 4 feet 5 inches and about stationary. Weather drizzling rain and warm.

GREENSBORO, PA.—River 6 feet 10 inches and stationary. River closed with ice seven inches thick. Weather cloudy and warmer.

MORGANTOWN, W. VA.—River 8 feet and closed. Weather, raining.

BROWNSVILLE, PA.—River closed. Weather cloudy.

HALLIPOLIS, O.—River 5 feet and falling. Weather cloudy and warmer.

WHEELING, W. VA.—River 9 feet 3 inches, stationary; cloudy and mild.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA.—River 4.5 feet and stationary. Weather, raining tonight. Rivermen preparing for a break-up of the ice.

News of the Rivers.

The towboat George W. Moredock will be inspected today by the local steamboat inspectors.

Capt. Thomas S. Calhoon of the steamer Virginia is in Cincinnati looking after his boat.

Capt. F. M. Dougherty of Louisville is at Paducah in the interest of the Ohio Valley Improvement association.

The two pilots' societies at St. Louis are again discussing the question of consolidation, having reached the conclusion that good will result by a joining of forces.

Another prophet has come to the front. Capt. Charles Boles predicts a rise in the rivers, March 7, but some rivermen are of the opinion that it will come sooner.

The Ohio river is frozen over at Aurora the first time in seven years. Great danger is apprehended when the ice breaks up and a great feeling of uneasiness prevails.

The Monongahela wharf yesterday was as smooth as a piece of glass. Pedestrians had a slippery time going up and down the levee, and teams could not be driven over the icy cobble stones.

The sand dredgeboats are operating on the local streams under difficulties. Some of the boats are unable to dig sand from the river on account of the ice. Many of them are tied up as a result.

Capt. John F. Klein has issued a very neat memorandum book for 1902 which is in great demand. Much information to the general public and rivermen is printed in the book, which is bound in leather and finished in gold.

At Gallipolis the channel in the Ohio is open, there being no floating ice whatever. But just above the Baltimore & Ohio bridge is a gorge which is gaining in size continually. The ice is forcing itself into great piles both in the channel and on the sides.

It is said that there is only enough river coal afloat at Cincinnati and Louisville to last for a week or two. It has been a long time since the market was in such a depleted condition. It is thought that prices will be marked up soon, unless the weather conditions change.

The government steamer Loma, having on board Capt. Isaac B. Williams and George H. Atkinson, went up the Monongahela river yesterday to Glenwood, to view the wreck of the towboat John A. Allen. J. Frank Tilley, secretary of the Coal exchange, accompanied the inspectors.

The towboat Oakland, Capt. Calvin Blazier, writes from New Orleans, left there January 17 for Louisville and expects to arrive at the latter place in 19 or 12 days. The temperature in New Orleans Monday stood at 120 in the sun. The boat was only 11 days going down and lost 19 hours on account of her machinery breaking.

At last report, the steamer Rose Hite was making an effort to go from Peters creek to the Snodgrass riffle in the second pool. Capt. John Britton says that the boat will be able to force her way there, thus getting out of the ice and into a landing at shore. The boat has been frozen in the middle of the river for almost one week.

Disaster to the coalboats and barges moored at the "Pumpkin Patch" seldom if ever follows when the heavy ice and gorges break loose from above and the channel and the Louisville harbor is cleared of ice before the ice moves. The Coal City Transit and Aid have cut a channel and cleared the harbor, so that if the gorges come they will have a free passage and no damage will be done to boats.

QUEEN WILHELMINA AND PRIME MINISTER'S ROOM AT THE HAGUE.
The Famous Palace in the Woods Will Be Seen by Teachers Who Tour Europe as Guests of The Pittsburgh Gazette and Chronicle Telegraph.

MUST BE SHOWN.

Coffee Drinkers Require Proof.

When persons insist on taking some kind of food or drink that causes disease it is not fair to blame a Doctor for not curing them.

Coffee keeps thousands of people sick in spite of all the Doctor can do to cure them. There is but one way to get well. That is to quit coffee absolutely; a great help will be to shift over to Postum Food Coffee.

A case of this kind is illustrated by Mrs. E. Kelly, 233 Eighth avenue, Newark, N. J., who says: "I have been ailing for about eight years with bilious trouble and indigestion. Every doctor told me to give up coffee. I laughed at the idea of coffee hurting me, until about three years ago I was taken very bad and had to have a doctor attend me regularly.

The Doctor refused to let me have coffee, but prescribed Postum Food Coffee. I soon got to making it so well that I could not tell the difference in taste between Postum and the common coffee.

"I began to improve right away and have never had a bilious spell since giving up coffee and taking on Postum. When I started I weighed 109 pounds; now I weigh 130. My friends ask what has made the change and, of course, I tell them it was leaving off coffee and taking up Postum.

"I know husband will never go back to the old-fashioned coffee again. You can use my name if you print this letter, for I am not ashamed to have the public know just what I have to say about Postum and what it has done for me."

LESSONS DRAWN FROM THE LIFE OF WASHINGTON

Memory of the First President Will Be Honored in Many Churches.

EELLS FAMILY'S RECORD

The memory of the country's first president will be honored tomorrow in numerous churches of the two cities. Special services will be held and eulogies preached. Both the Salvation Army and the Volunteers of America will conduct special services in their missions in honor of George Washington.

A new branch of the Christian and Missionary Alliance will open tomorrow in Fulton street, near Center avenue, W. P. Robinson is the president. The building will be dedicated by prayer service at 6 a. m. At 10:45 the Rev. E. M. Collette of Charlotte, N. C., will preach the dedicatory sermon.

The Rev. Robert W. Patton, late of the diocese of Virginia, has accepted a call to St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal church, Wilkinsburg, and will assume charge tomorrow morning. Tuesday evening the new pastor will be given a reception in Assembly hall, Wilkinsburg.

In all probability the Rev. Dr. Alfred M. Eells of Hammond, Ind., will be the next pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, Allegheny. Dr. Eells is to preach there tomorrow, and according to the prevailing sentiment will be called shortly after.

Dr. Eells is of Scotch-English descent. For the past 250 years the Eells race has contributed an almost unbroken line of ministers to the Presbyterian church. Prominent in the family history are the Rev. John Eells of Connecticut, who was an associate of Dean Swift; the Rev. Cushing Eells, who founded Whitman college at Walla Walla, Wash; the Rev. James Eells, D.D., LL. D., who was pastor at Cleveland, O., professor of Lane seminary at Cincinnati, O., pastor at San Francisco, Cal., and moderator of the general assembly when it met in Chicago in 1877; Daniel P. Eells, who is an elder and prominent banker of Cleveland, O., is also a member of the board of trustees of Lane seminary. Dr. Eells was born March 17, 1873, in Iowa. He studied electrical engineering at the Iowa State college. In 1893 he was converted under B. Fay Mills, at Grinnell, Ia. He completed his collegiate course at the University of Omaha and graduated from McCormick seminary in 1899.

A special song service will be held tomorrow night in the First Methodist Protestant church, Union avenue, Allegheny, under the direction of R. J. McDowell. The choir will sing "No Shadows Yonder" and "They That Sow in Tears" from Gaul's "Holy City." A gloria from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass" and a "Salve Regina" from Dana will be sung by L. H. Harper, tenor. The Rev. Henry Wilson and J. C. Smith, mission evangelists, have opened a new mission house in Lawrenceville. The first service will be held tomorrow afternoon.

SENATOR FORAKER COMING.

He Is the Attorney for the New Pilots Combine.

When the masters and pilots of the Pittsburgh district, who are joining the Pilots Protective association, become thoroughly organized, Senator Joseph B. Foraker of Ohio, attorney for the society, will come to Pittsburgh and submit the plan and workings of the society to the boat owners of this district.

Senator Foraker was consulted in the organization of the society and in fact was attorney for those who are backing the organization. A number of members signed yesterday. Edward S. Grant of Middleport, O., who is organizing the Pittsburgh pilots, says that all of the Cincinnati men have joined. He says that there is not a man in that town who is out of it. There are a few pilots along the river above Cincinnati who have not yet been reached. Mr. Grant says that he has been so encouraged, that he will remain in Pittsburgh until Monday night. He expects to visit St. Louis next week.

WINTER RESORTS.

Of Interest to Those Expecting to Visit Them.

Preparations for a winter's stay in the warm climate which attracts many persons to Colorado, California and the Pacific Coast and to Florida and the South are not at all bothersome if persons interested avail themselves of the conveniences offered by the Pennsylvania Lines. Representatives of those lines will cheerfully assist in shaping details and will impart full information about routes and dates. They will call at homes or places of business if desired and post prospective tourists, and will also look after the delivery of tickets and the checking of baggage, thereby relieving passengers of those details. This assistance is free and may be enjoyed by communicating with District Passenger Agent J. K. Dillon, address Room 306, Park building, Pittsburgh.

A feeling of regret comes with the first gray hairs. They stand in the way of business and social advancement. Hay's Hair-Health affords a sure means of restoring to the hair the beauty of youth.

Stops Falling Hair

"My hair is now restored to its youthful color. I have not a gray hair left. My husband says I look 20 years younger, and my hair ceases to fall, while before I was in danger of becoming bald."

A Public Boon.

Hay's Hair-Health has earned this title, and thousands are enjoying fine heads of hair produced by this preparation. It quickly cleanses the scalp, removes dandruff, stops falling and breaking of the hair, and changes it if gray to its youthful color and luxuriance.

Happy Childhood Knows What's Best

Medicine that a child dislikes, will not do it much good. Sensible parents will give the little darlings medicine that tastes good and does good, and don't grip or gripe the kind they like themselves.

"I rely upon Cascarets entirely in looking after our children."—Mrs. Ellen Burwell, 1813 Division St., St. Louis.

"My little boy three years old was troubled with bleeding piles. We began to give him Cascarets, and he has taken one box, he was sound and well."—W. A. Goin, Okmulgee, I. T.

"My little daughter complained of not feeling well and soon vomit and became very sick. A half Cascaret tablet was given her and in less than half an hour she got up as well as ever. Cascarets are a household necessity."—Thos. L. Most, P. M., Trenton, Pa.

"My little girl was greatly troubled with worms, but after giving her a 25c box of Cascarets, she is entirely well."—Mrs. John P. Biley, 6 Sudlor St., Gloucester, Mass.

"I have never used any remedy that has been as good as Cascarets. Have to keep them hidden from my little boy, as he eats them like candy."—Mrs. Robt. G. Fay, Goes, Ohio.

"I shall never be without Cascarets. My children are always delighted when I give them a portion of a tablet, and cry for more. They have a permanent place in my home."—Mrs. John Flagel, Michigan City, Ind.

"We use Cascarets in our family and they are the children's friend."—Mrs. James Greenwood, Menasha, Wis.

"I always keep Cascarets in the house for the children as well as myself."—Mrs. Chas. Roos, 632 Lorain St., Cleveland, O.

"For months I have used Cascarets, and my little ones require no other medicine."—Mrs. G. H. Hammond, 683 24th St., Minneapolis.

Medicine forced on the little ones loses half its power. Nasty, sickening medicine is an injustice to the dear little innocents who can't protect themselves, makes them peevish and afraid of the dose. When a child hates the medicine, it will not be effective. Children like Cascarets Candy Cathartic, medicine, it will not be effective. Children like Cascarets Candy Cathartic, and confidence for them and are kept healthy always and easily against the damages of childhood's ailments.

China Cabinets

China Cabinets are as dissimilar as the human family, and comprise the same three degrees of good, better and best.

You'll have no difficulty in determining which degree preempts space at this establishment.

Every design shown here is confined to this store—cannot be obtained elsewhere—and every piece is distinguished by an originality that is refreshing.

At the top of this advertisement we print a picture of a China Cabinet that is worthy of a more effective illustration—made of quartered golden oak, 42 inches wide, 56 inches high, with bent glass ends.

Price $23

IT LOOKS LIKE CASE OF QUIT BY SPALDING

Today's Conference Will Likely Straighten Out the Ugly Tangle.

HANLON FIRST ON DECK

Brooklyn Manager Thinks Spalding's Duty Was to Come Here—President Dreyfuss Says Everything Is Sure to Be Fixed Up Right.

It looks very much like a case of lay down on the part of A. G. Spalding and instead of ridding baseball of Freedman and Freedmanism that the order of thing have been reversed. That is the way the present status of the baseball war looks at present and that is the way it is likely to wind up unless there is a decided change of temperament at the conference of the Spalding four to be heard today at the Schenley hotel.

The first arrival for the conference was Manager Edward Hanlon of the Brooklyn team, who got in from Baltimore yesterday morning and spent the day in local baseball headquarters. It was very apparent that Hanlon was angry and did not like the course baseball affairs had taken. He did not want to do any talking and succeeded pretty well in restraining himself, but he could not help but admit that it looked like a case of quit on Spalding's part and he was sorry for it.

Spalding Should Be Here.

During a general discussion of the matter it was pointed out that Spalding's proper course to pursue would have been to come on here and confer with the club owners, who have stood by him and if he had any plans for the future to make them known. Instead of that he writes a letter from far-off California, passing the whole matter up to the four club owners forcing them to do the work he had cut out for himself and which should have been attended to before this time.

It was pointed out that when Spalding accepted the position in New York he had impressed upon the club owners, who were with him in the fight that they must keep quiet and allow him to do all the talking as well as the planning. This command has been followed out to the letter by the Spalding four and it was thought that their leader had his plans so well prepared that there could be no question as to the result. It now develops that instead of having plans of his own Spalding has really done nothing and when it comes down to the test he passes the entire matter up to the club owners not wanting to take any responsibility himself.

President Dreyfuss did not care to do any more talking, saying that he was content to await the result of today's conference. He would not state whether he favored a compromise with the Freedman four or not. There was a lot of baseball talk indulged in during the afternoon and W. C. Temple's name was brought into play several times, so that it would not be surprising to find the presidency offered to him and he might be induced to accept it providing his selection was a unanimous one.

A Bad Play Was Made.

Mr. Dreyfuss admitted that Spalding has made a bad play and placed their case in a very ugly plight. He agreed that Spalding duty would have been to come here and confer with the men who have stood by him in his fight. He also said that it would not surprise him any to see Spalding drop in on today's conference. It is known that the Pittsburgher favors peace, but it is doubtful if he wants it with Freedman as an accompanist. The magnates to arrive this morning are James A. Hart of Chicago, John I. Rogers of Philadelphia and Charles Ebbetts of Brooklyn.

The conference is called for 11 o'clock at the Schenley, but it will likely be afternoon before anything is done. The situation at present is even more clouded than it was before, and as Harry Pulliam remarked yesterday, "The club owners simply don't know where they are at." It is hoped, however, that todays session will straighten out the whole tangle.

RUMOR ABOUT CONROY.

Report That He Has Jumped Pirates Denied By President Dreyfuss.

Among the baseball rumors about town last night was one that "Wid" Conroy, the Pirate's new utility player, had jumped the Pittsburgh club and would be found this season with one of the American league teams. This rumor was promptly and officially denied by President Dreyfuss.

Conroy was in the city during the early part of the week and left here for Milwaukee to spend a couple of weeks with friends prior to starting for Hot Springs. The report said that his old Milwaukee employers induced him to make the jump. President Dreyfuss laughed at the report and said Conroy will be a Pirate all right.

HUNDREDS OF ENTRIES.

Dog Show Will Be a Big Affair—Pittsburgh Dogs Won.

The entries for the bench show of the Duquesne Kennel club have run in advance over former exhibits. Last night 300 entries were received at Secretary Stedman's office, and 400 are expected by the time the limit expires at 12 o'clock tonight. Secretary Stedman has been in New York this week with President Oswell R. Vandergrift booking the attractions of the Madison Square garden show. The members of the local bench show are pleased at the success of Barton Tory, the champion setter, who won over the best specimens of the United States and Europe in the English setter classes at New York this week.

Bank Clerk Teams Will Meet.

The hockey teams from T. Mellon & Sons' bank and the Pittsburgh National Bank of Commerce will close their season with a game at Duquesne rink this morning. A hard contest is expected, as Mellons are game and will attempt to retrieve themselves for the defeat given to them on New Year's by the Commerce team. Line up.

KEYSTONE WON BY SCORE OF 4 TO 2

CLEVELAND PLAYED FASTER HOCKEY IN SECOND GAME.

Local Leaders Were Minus Four of Their Best Players, While Hern Was Shifted. Forest City Men Displayed More Ginger Than Keystone.

Under the idea that there must be less victory and more hockey to last night's game with Cleveland than offered by the first contest won by the Bankers the Keystone leaders of the local league went on the ice minus four of their best players, in Sixsmith, Morrison, Murphy and Peel, and with the additional handicap of Hern, their crack goal tender, playing forward and a novice in front of the net. The Pittsburgh team realized its expectations a little more fully than was anticipated, as the Cleveland skaters in their second attempt played a vastly improved game over the opening night, and the Keystones pulled out of the contest with victory by the narrow margin of a score of 4 to 2.

The Cleveland players injected ginger into their play from the start of the game to the finish. The locals on the other hand showed symptoms of the spring fever and played a weaker game than even the shakeup in the team would warrant. Their passing at times was very much off color and they had a dazed way of looking for the puck when it was right under their heels. Though McAvoy at goal for the visitors made some nice stops the Keystone shies for the net did not to any alarming extent outnumber those of the visitors.

Fred Clarke caverted at point for the Keystones and was one of the liveliest performers on the ice, his quickness of action sometimes leading the spectators to the mistaken impression that he was a wide-awake Cleveland skater. His star playing was doubtless incited by the fact that Ned Hanlon, President Dreyfuss and Secretary Pulliam were watching his efforts from a box. Score and line up:

READY FOR THE FIGHT.

Terry McGovern Is in Fine Fettle and Expects to Win in Short Order.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—Terry McGovern spent his last day before his fight with Sullivan in a very quiet manner. In the morning he arose at 7 o'clock, but outside of a short walk, took no exercise whatever. In the afternoon he spent almost an hour at the Oakley track and circled it six times. The entire party at Camp McGovern, including Manager Harris, Joe Humphries, Trainer Mayhood, Hughey McGovern, Burnett Koesters and Terry, will leave for Louisville in the morning at 8:30 over the Baltimore & Ohio.

Manager Harris said today: "I will not say that Terry is in better condition than he has ever been before at a fight, for a man that is just entering the ring has more vitality than one that has fought for several years. I will say this, however: Terry is in as fine condition as we could make him and if nothing out of the ordinary happens I don't see how he can lose. We have made it a point never to give my opinion as to how long a fight will last. Terry will go in to finish his man as soon as possible."

Danny Dougherty, who is now with the party, said: "I think Terry will win in about six rounds, although I would like to see the fight go further so I can get a line as to whether he has gone back any or not."

M'CLELLAND BACK HOME.

The Pittsburg Boy Made a Fine Impression in Chicago.

Jack McClelland and his manager, Billy Corcoran, returned last night from Chicago, where McClelland boxed Sentry. Corcoran says McClelland boxed strong and made a fine impression, having the Chicago boxer beat and all but out in the sixth round. It was the first time the Pittsburgher appeared in a short contest, and had not quite got warmed up. All the Chicago clubs are anxious for his services, and wanted him to appear there next week.

Corcoran and McClelland started working yesterday with young Conboy, who meets Mike McDermott at Arnold next Monday night. Corcoran thinks with a little more experience Conboy will give a good account of himself in the ring.

RACED IN RAIN AND DEEP MUD AT OAKLAND

Duckoy Was a Hot Favorite, but Failed to Land His Race.

O'CONNOR'S JOCKEYSHIP

His Effort on Siddons Was Very Brilliant, Bringing the Horse from the Last Position to the Front Just at the Finish.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—The racing today was under disagreeable circumstances, rain falling all afternoon and the track being very slushy. Duckoy, a 1 to 4 shot, was one of the two favorites that failed to land—and was thought to have the event at his mercy, especially as the going suited him. Bragg beat the gate, but Duckoy overhauled him at the first run. They ran on even terms for a time, but Duckoy did not have his usual speed, and stopped badly. EXTRAORDINARY MERIT

Of a New Catarrh Cure.

Physicians are slow to take up new and untried remedies, until their value has been established by actual experiment, and they are naturally skeptical of the many new preparations constantly appearing and for which extravagant claims are made.

The most liberal and enlightened physicians are always ready, however, to make a fair trial of any new specific and get at its true medical value.

A new preparation for the cure of catarrh has attracted much attention in the past few months and has met with great favor from the medical profession, not only because it is remarkably successful in the cure of catarrh, but also because it is not a secret patent medicine; anyone using it knows just what he is taking into his system.

It is composed of blood root, which acts on the blood and mucous membrane; hydrastin, for same purpose, to clear the mucus from the head and throat, and red gum of eucalyptus tree, to destroy catarrhal germs in the blood.

All of these antiseptic remedies are combined in the form of a pleasant-tasting tablet or lozenge, and are sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and many recent tests in chronic catarrh cases have established its merit beyond question.

Dr. Sebring states that he has discarded inhalers, sprays and washes and depends entirely upon Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in treating nasal catarrh. He says: "I have had patients who had lost the sense to smell entirely, and whose hearing was also impaired from nasal catarrh, recover completely after a few weeks' use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. I have been equally successful with the remedy in catarrh of the throat and catarrh of the stomach. I can only explain it on the principle that catarrh is a constitutional disease, and that the antiseptic properties in these tablets drive the catarrhal poison completely out of the system."

Dr. Odell says, I have cured many cases of catarrh of stomach in past four months by the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets alone without the use of any other remedy and without dieting. The tablets are especially useful in nasal catarrh and catarrh of the throat, clearing the membranes and overcoming the continual hawking, coughing and expectorating, so disgusting and annoying to catarrh sufferers.

Pupils.

THE MARTIN SHORTHAND AND COMMERCIAL SCHOOL,

531 Penn ave., and 54 Fifth st., is conducted on GERMAN BUSINESS PRINCIPLES and that probably is one reason for its phenomenal growth during the last 20 years.

Another reason is that every one of the nine instructors are highly educated practical business men and women.

Another reason is the equipment of the school—consisting of 70 typewriters and every facility known to the modern business college.

Another reason is that every statement appearing in advertisements or made to visitors is absolutely true.

That "Honesty is the best policy" is certainly borne out by the past record and present standing of this school.

KNOX INTERVIEW RAISES A LARGE CROP OF RUMORS

One Was That Morgan Was Going to See Roosevelt About Merger Suit.

THE BUYING IN LONDON

Five-Day Bank Statement in Some Respects Unfavorable, as Was Expected—News from Europe Foreshadow No Gold Shipments.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—A more confused Wall street than that of the last two days would be a thing to see. Experts are all at sea in their market calculations and rarely has the immediate future of stocks been invested with greater uncertainty.

The liquidation so conspicuous yesterday was continued today, although on a smaller scale. Before the opening of this market the New York houses bought "Americans" in London in order to restore prices as nearly as possible to parity. Early cables reported American stocks in London at an average of ½ per cent below the final quotations of last night here; but on buying from Wall street "Americans" abroad were advanced before our opening to within ¼ per cent of parity. The moral effect of this apparent solicitude was considerable until it was seen that the houses which had been buying American stocks in London were selling the same here.

Rumor Monger at Work.

Wall street was taken so greatly by surprise in the Northern Securities matter that even at the close of business today it was unable to clearly analyze its state of mind. Innumerable rumors were circulated today, one that J. P. Morgan had gone to Washington to interview President Roosevelt. This was at once denied at Mr. Morgan's office. Another rumor was that before the Northern Securities Company was formed Mr. Morgan and several of his associates consulted with President Roosevelt as to the probable attitude of his administration, and were assured that no such action as that now contemplated would be taken. This rumor also was denied at authoritative quarters.

It is said no one has appeared in Washington on behalf of the Northern Securities Company, except the legal advisers who have been there to represent defendant interests in the case of the state of Minnesota against the Northern Securities Company.

A Five-Day Bank Statement.

The weekly statement of the Associated Banks was issued today instead of Saturday, as usual, for the reason that tomorrow is a holiday. It represents, therefore, only five days of business and does not adequately reflect the actual condition of the banks.

It was expected to be an unfavorable statement, and in several respects it was unfavorable. Loans showed an increase of $4,752,900, and deposits increased $4,-196,200. There was a loss in cash amounting to only $55,200, this being considerably less than the preliminary estimate. Owing to the increase of deposits, due to the increase of loans, the reserve required was increased $1,048,800, whereas reserves held decreased $55,400, the result being, therefore, a decrease of $1,104,200 in surplus reserves. The total surplus now is $12,456,650.

The Bank of France, in its weekly statement, showed an increase of more than 25,000,000 francs in gold held. The Bank of England also showed a gain in bullion this week, and from this and other indications of similar import, it is inferred that gold shipments from New York on any considerable scale are not likely to occur in the immediate future.

Individual Bank Reserves.

The percentages of surplus reserve held by the clearing house banks show no material change over those of last week. The individual percentage reserves, as compiled from official returns, are as follows:

Pittsburgh Story Denied.

The story from Pittsburgh that the Tidewater Steel Company of Chester, Pa., had been leased to the United States Steel Corporation is contradicted here at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co.

The Coal Outlook.

The distant approach of April 1, which is the date marking the period when contracts usually are closed with large consumers, has set bituminous coal interests here speculating as to the conditions that may intervene to govern mid-spring prices. These interests, by the way, have a peculiar concern in the existing car shortage. The present lack of transportation facilities in the coal and iron regions is for them a source of hope. A car shortage means higher prices for the bituminous product.

Bear Literature Unpopular.

The bulls retort to every dissenting argument used to be, "Well look at the railroad earnings." Until several weeks ago these earnings were simply amazing and constituted an exhibit of which it was impossible for a bear to discredit. Now, however, earnings in several sections of the country are beginning to show decreases. The exploitation of decreased railroad earnings, like that of other bearish matters, seems never to be popular in the market world. The public is bullish or nothing. It is a proverb that the public is never short of the market.

In one prominent Wall news establishment there hangs in the editorial room the legend, "We are not here to bear stocks." This unpopularity of things are bearish, probably accounts for the fact that decreases in railroad earnings have been given less space in print than the increases formerly were given.

E. W. HARDEN.

The Treasury and the Banks.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—(Special.)—In redemption of checks drawn by depositors of gold at the Seattle assay office today's official records show that the sub-treasury paid out yesterday $1,593, against $823 for the same period a week ago. Total payment by government to New York banks for the day, $2,-375,000. Payment made to government, $18,000. Balance on the day's transactions, $745,000, paid by banks to government, against $561,000 paid by government to banks for the corresponding period a week ago.

Turpentine and Rosin.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Feb. 21.—Spirits turpentine, nothing doing; receipts, 20 casks. Rosin firm, $1 15@1 20; receipts, 1,254. Crude turpentine quiet, $1 35@2 50; receipts, 24 casks. Tar steady, $1 20; receipts, 511 bbls.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 21.—Turpentine and rosin unchanged.

News From the Mines

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Pittsburgh capital seems to be going largely into the Thunder Mountain district, Ida., which is being boomed as the latest rich gold field. The Jennings Bros. are reported to have paid $150,000 for the Taylor and Bly group, on which 20 men are engaged in development. John L. Greenlee & Co. are said to have paid a handsome figure for the Apax and Burr Oak, and other Pittsburgh men have paid $100,000 for the Hawley Packett group. Mills will go from Idaho to the Bunker Hill spring.

It is claimed that the Kentucky Bells at Alma, Col., will have $50,000 worth of ore blocked out in the spring. Fair-grade ore has been opened in the Oronoke, near Central City.

The Marble Bay gold, copper and silver mines, which cover an area of 1,200 acres on Lezada island, have been sold to a syndicate of Washington mining men for $300,000.

Snowshoe and No. 7 in the Boundary country, B. C., have resumed shipments. Last week's shipments were 1,200 tons, 1,824 tons of which the Granby mines sent out 4,697 tons and the Mother Lode 3,160 tons.

A 100-ton lixiviation plant is to be erected on the Golden Crown, near Midway, B. C., which recently passed into the hands of eastern capitalists.

Sixty-five per cent copper ore has been found in the 400-foot level of the O. K., near Milford, Utah. The seam is about an inch thick and is believed to be leading up to a large ore body.

Shipments from Mackintosh sampler at Park City, Utah, last week, aggregated 6,405,700 pounds. The Ontario provided 1,487,000 pounds. Quincy, 1,425,000; Daly-West, 1,368,-000. Anchor Concentrates, 350,000; California Concentrates, 45,000, and Silver King, 1,685,-760 pounds.

A second mill, to cost $100,000, is to be built for the Anaconda, at Gold mountain, Utah. The mint is earning $1,500 a day and the new mill, it is estimated, will increase the profits to $4,000 a day.

The Flint Lake Mining Company has placed the contract for the erection of a 50-ton milling plant to be delivered at Rat Portage, Ont., by L.

The Metal Market.

All of the metal markets were quiet today, but in two or three cases prices were lifted slightly. Tin here was quoted at $25 30 for spot and London prices were advanced 10s to £117 for spot and £116 10s for futures. The New York and London copper markets were steady, but quiet, unchanged. Lead firm here at 4¼c, while London was 3s 9d higher. Spelter was firm, closing at $4 20@4 25. London was 2s 6d lower at £17 15s. The local iron markets were quiet and unchanged and the English markets were lower.

William Wiese Has Purchased a Property in Collins Avenue.

DEAL IN M'KEES ROCKS

Many Small Sales Were Reported in the Realty Market Yesterday. Plans Drawn for School House and Automobile Shed.

Another parcel of Nineteenth ward property has changed hands, the price being $25,000 and the purchaser William Wiese, who secured title to the property from Daniel E. Yohn. The lot purchased has a frontage of 274.6 feet in the east side of Collins avenue near Stanton avenue, and a depth of 101.8 feet. Two 10-room dwellings stand on one side of the lot. The remainder of the plot is vacant and is one of the best building sites in the section. The purchase was made for investment. The East End residence property is perhaps the most ready and rapid seller in the realty market is proven by the fact that since February 1, 29 sales of property in the Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first and Twenty-second wards have been reported, all of which were more than $10,000. The aggregate of these sales is $865,000, or an average of nearly $30,000 a sale. Besides these deals a large number of small homes in the four wards have been sold, and brokers have dozens of inquiries on hand for East End property which they cannot satisfy.

Lots in McKees Rocks Sold.

W. A. Herron & Sons have sold to Jacob Herst & Co., nine lots in McKees Rocks for $8,300. The lots are part of the Olivia Place plan, which this firm is managing, and have a combined frontage of 225 feet in Harriett street, with a depth of 100 feet. It is understood that the purchasers will erect a factory building on the property.

Negley Bros. have awarded the contract to Hartzog Bros. for the erection of an eight-room brick house in Kincaid street, to cost $3,000. H. L. Crevelier has the contract from Architects East & Miller for the erection of two buildings in Butler street for Hubbard & Co. One building will be a stock house 50x60 feet, and the other a mill 50x105 feet. The estimated cost is $8,000.

MORGAN'S MOVE COMFORTS TIMID SPECULATORS

Financier Said to Have Conferred With Roosevelt on Merger Question.

BULLS GAIN CONFIDENCE

Substantial Rally Takes Place Toward the Close of the Trading—Issuance of Bank Statement Had a Favorable Effect on the Situation.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—The action of the stock market this morning demonstrated pretty conclusively that speculative sentiment had overcome the shock caused by yesterday's unexpected announcement of the proceedings against the Northern Securities Company. Stocks held on margin and by timid holders had apparently been sold out yesterday, and the forced liquidation completed, there was very little need for supporting orders in the market this morning. It was generally supposed that stocks bought yesterday for support had been unloaded on the rally, as insiders gained confidence that no serious break in prices was impending. At the opening the market was heavy, but by the second hour the selling had fallen to such small proportions that the market was practically stagnant.

Substantial Rally Takes Place.

At the same time there were points of resistance and a few stocks gained additional strength as the day progressed and led a substantial rally, which placed prices quite generally above last night's close. The issuance of the bank statement seemed to be the turning point. The cash item was practically unchanged, instead of the expected decrease of over a million dollars, and the restriction of the loan expansion to less than $5,000,000 reassured the uneasy sentiment that credit resources were being taken up at too headlong a pace. The call money rate eased off to 2 per cent under the showing of the bank statement and the reduced requirements for speculative purposes. The cessation of forced liquidation and the development of strength in a number of stocks drove the shorts to cover.

Cheering Report About Morgan.

A report that J. P. Morgan had gone to Washington to confer with President Roosevelt gave room traders comfort. The Colorado and Southern stocks became very strong at the last on a volume of dealings unprecedented for those stocks. Their gains reached 3 points or better. Good dividend prospects were alleged as the reason for the advance. Chicago, Indianapolis & Louisville also rose 3½ and the preferred 1⅝ on reported dividend prospects. Amalgamated Copper was erratic, rising at one time over a point, but closing practically unchanged. Manhattan also failed to hold its full gain of 1½. American Snuff rose 5 and the preferred 2. Northwest recovered 4¾ of yesterday's loss. United States Rubber stocks were strong. Outside of these the striking gains were in less prominent stocks. Reserved strength in the exchange market corroborated the expectation that more gold will be exported next week. Bonds were rather dull and irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,385,000.

Roosevelt's Action a Surprise.

The announced determination of the authorities at Washington to take legal steps against the Northern Securities Company, on the ground that it was formed in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law of 1890, upset the stock market on Thursday and superseded every other consideration. Previous to that time there had been a dull and spotty market, with individual stocks advancing sharply and the general undertone firm. This was due to the disinclination of holders to sell, as much as to any marked demand for stocks. How far the new turn of affairs in Northern Securities may ultimately affect the market is difficult to foresee. Those whose substantial interests are most at stake were large buyers in the flurry of Thursday, while the sellers were almost wholly the speculators on margin, some of them of important character.

History Repeats Itself.

It is invariably the rule, however, that substantial interests come to the support of values of properties in which they are interested in time of crisis without any purpose of obtaining stocks for permanent holding. The same thing was seen at the time of President McKinley's assassination and in last May's panic. The assumption among speculators in Wall street that the establishment of the status of the Northern Securities Company would remove all the repressive influences upon speculation and restore conditions to the state that was interrupted by the Northern Pacific quarrel, takes no account of the fact that values have since come to pass, or have been demonstrated to be idle rumors and canards.

Discounting the Future.

Not much thought has been given as to how far the actual condition of property values would be affected by the overthrow of the Northern Securities Company. It is not clear that the actual changes and divisions of control which were effected by the Northern Pacific contest would be altered by dissolving the company. The flotation of the Northern Securities Company might supposably be defeated, without threatening the renewal of the transcontinental railroad conflict. The cause for depression with some is declared to be withholding against the Northern Securities Company lies in the supposition that it is intended to test the efficacy of the existing law in the case, and then lend the power of the administration to amending it if necessary to make it effective against the formation of great financial combinations. The program thus foreshadowed would not be regarded with equanimity by any large financial interest and a reflection of misgiving would be expected in the securities market for an indefinite period.

Conditions Are Encouraging.

The routine news of the week has given no cause for anxiety, but rather for encouragement in the activity of the iron trade, a rather larger movement of grain and prosperous general trade conditions. The bond market has been slightly affected by the late weakness in stocks, outside some of the highly speculative issues. United States refunding 2s advanced ¾, the 3s coupon ⅝, ditto registered, ¼, the 5s ½ and the old 4s ⅛ over the closing call of last week.

Local Stocks Dull and Quite Irregular, Weakness Predominating

FIRE PROOFING ISSUES WERE SHOVED DOWN

Both the Stocks and Warrants Were Heavily Liquidated at Losses.

STEEL SHARES WERE DULL

Two New High Records Made by Banks—Coal Shares Were Neglected at Fractional Changes. Brewing Preferred Was Firm.

There was very little about the market on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday to attract or hold attention. It was generally very dull and rather weak and irregular in tone, but the material changes were limited in number and as a whole small. The close was about the dullest part of the day, the evident desire being to wait until after the holiday before doing much in the line of business. The greatest activity was in National Fire Proofing issues. The common sold 1,834 shares and broke to 29½, a loss of $1 a share. That price is below the figure at which the stock sold when the capital was first doubled last year. The preferred was even more active, selling over 2,800 shares. It broke to 39½, but rallied near the close and finished firmer and ¼ higher at 40½, the top price of the day. The warrants were dealt in to the extent of 2,493 and broke from $4 at the opening to 2½, later rallying ½, which made the loss for the day 1¼. The situation in the stock does not clear much, if any, and that accounts for the irregularity in the prices. The steel shares were very dull and without material change in prices. The banking group afforded both strength and weakness, two issues making new high records and one declining $7. Monongahela National went up $5 to $265 and more was wanted. Colonial Trust also advanced $5 to $325 and was in further demand. These were the new high records. Citizens National went off $1 and Real Estate Trust $7. The reaction in the latter is as much lacking in explanation as was the surprising advance from $230 to $284. There was very little doing in the coal group and the changes in value were almost nominal. Brewing preferred was firmer and advanced ½ to 44½. The stock is expected to work higher on the repeal of the war tax. Philadelphia Company stocks were very dull, but the scrips were unusually active. Only one bond, a $1,000 Millvale, Etna & Sharpsburg Traction 5 per cent, found a buyer, but it was at an advance of ½ at 113, which is a new high record. The last previous sale was in October, 1900, when a $500 bond brought 112½. In the quotations Peoples National bank was $5 higher at $350 bid.

It is rumored that the Pittsburgh Brewing Company will retire a portion of its 6 per cent bond issue.

It is reported that the United States Steel Corporation has purchased some important Swedish iron mines.

W. I. Mustin, president of the Pittsburgh stock exchange, leaves for a two weeks' trip to the south this evening.

During the first half hour there was not a trade in United States Steel common and only 10 preferred found a buyer.

The National Fire Proofing Company has decided to close the books for the transfer of warrants at 12 o'clock each day, instead of at 2 o'clock.

London was a buyer of the United States Steel stocks and Morgan brokers were reported to be also purchasing those securities in the market.

It is claimed that the plan to retire United States Steel preferred is being definitely formulated and that the directors will soon give it consideration.

H. S. Black, president of the George A. Fuller Company, and A. R. Peacock were yesterday elected directors of the National Fire Proofing Company.

For some time H. M. Long has been bidding $265 for Monongahela National bank. Yesterday forenoon he managed to get 4 shares at that price, which was a new high record.

The largest single trade of the day was made by Robinson & Stevenson, who sold 500 of the Fire Proofing common about noon. Their sales of the stock at that time amounted to 800 shares.

The Morgan-Hill interests are said to be not at all impressive regarding the outcome of the testing of the Northern Securities Company merger. They insist that there has been no violation of the Sherman or other laws.

Mr. Keene, in response to a request for his opinion on market matters from friends in London cabled that unfavorable factors are sentimental and that the general situation in this market and in the country at large is sound in all essential particulars.

Application has been made for a charter for the Bank of Commerce, Banking and Trust purposes to start business April 1 at the corner of Wood street and Liberty avenue in the old Penn National bank quarters. The capital stock is $200,000, one-half of which has been subscribed. L. H. Smith is to be president.

A private telegram from New York to Sproul & Co. says: "It looks to me as if the market might work a little lower unless some decided clearance can take place in the present conditions. Stocks are held in strong hands and every effort will be made to sustain the market. It sometimes happens that capital sticks pretty close together in times of uncertainty. I cannot advise our friends to sacrifice their long stocks, and I cannot advise the short side of the market. The immediate future course of the market is entirely guesswork and one man's guess is as good as another's. The conditions of the country are certainly very favorable and if stocks are intrinsically worth higher prices I would say that it is better to hold them than to sacrifice them. There is quite a variety of opinion expressed by the brokers and financiers in Wall street."

Fruits and Produce.

Trade was more active yesterday than for several weeks, the mild weather bringing out buyers, and also enabling dealers to make shipments. Butter, Eggs and Cheese.

Cheese was firm at the advance which took effect on Thursday, demand being good. Stocks throughout the country have been largely reduced by big export request, and prices will likely remain firm until the coming into market of new cheese in May. Eggs were steady to-day (though the latter part of April). Butter is easier. There was no real change in the egg situation, receipts were a little freer, but not enough to affect prices, only a few cases arriving, which were distributed among the various dealers. Those who were fortunate to have any in stock were very independent in the matter of selling.

Butter—Elgin creamery, prints, 25@26c; do tubs, 24@25c; Ohio and Pennsylvania creamery, 20@24c; dairy butter, 22@23c; fresh country roll, 18@20c; cooking butter, 17@18c.

Poultry.

Though western markets were a trifle easier yesterday there was no change in local quotations, but indications point to lower ranges of prices if the warmer weather holds good enough to start shipments forward from the country. There is a fairly good supply of chickens, but turkeys are scarce.

Chickens—Live hens, per lb, 11½@12½c; springers, 11½@12½c; roosters, 7@8c; turkeys, 12@14c; do dressed, 18@20c; ducks, dressed, 15@16c; fresh spring dressed, 15@16c; pigeons per doz, $1 00@1 25; squabs, per doz, $3 00@4 00; live, 80@c; dressed, 14@15c; ducks, live, 12@13c; do dressed, 17@18c.

Cereals Extremely Tame

LOWER PRICES PREVAIL IN THE GRAIN MARKET

Most of Light Trading Due to Preparations for the Holiday.

SENTIMENT WAS BEARISH

Foreign News of Wheat Was Slightly Bullish, but Domestic News Was the Reverse—Corn and Oats Turn Weak—Hog Market Strong.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Grains had another slow, monotonous day. Most of the light trading was evening up in preparation for the holiday on change tomorrow, but bearish sentiment, especially in corn, eventually turned the pits weak and May wheat closed ⅝c lower, May corn ⅝@¾c lower and May oats ⅝c off. Provisions closed unchanged to 5c higher.

Wheat conditions were little changed. Foreign news was slightly bullish and domestic the reverse. Closing up deals started the market a trifle lower, but so tame was speculation that fluctuations the first part of the session were hardly noticeable. There was little interest to the market and the pit was almost without a feature. Cables about steady. Argentine shipments were much reduced from last year; northwestern receipts were larger and are expected to be larger for some time, owing to the elevators shipping to their terminals.

The prevailing sentiment was to sell for a moderate break, but the experience of short sellers in both corn and wheat for the last few days held the feeling in check to some extent. There still holds out the depressing absence of outside business. Eventually the southwestern markets began turning weak; the corn market was affected bearishly and wheat turned the scale and slipped downward. When the bearish feeling was well manifested in wheat bulls had a pretty hard time of it supporting the market. May, which opened a shade higher to ¼@¾c lower at 78⅜c to 78⅝, haggled for a long time, then declined to 77⅝c and closed weak and ⅝c lower at 77½@77⅝c. One of the early bearish influences was the advice that yesterday's export sales were for Manitoba wheat.

Cash business today was only a trifle better. Local receipts were 12 cars, one of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 505 cars making a total for the three points of 517 cars, against 278 a previous week. This day last year was a holiday. Primary receipts were 1,330 bushels. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour equaled 391,000 bushels. Argentine shipments were 684,000 bushels, compared to 476,000 bushels last week and 3,062,000 bushels last year. The Bradstreet reported 12 loads taken for export.

There was more interest today in corn than in wheat. Bearish news was in the majority and sentiment was nearly all on the selling side. Corn fought decline shortly, premium to 4 cent to prompt trade. Cables were steady, a little higher than yesterday, and London reported a light yield promised for Argentine. Northwestern markets had light receipts but persistently sent in bearish reports. There were no small reports of acceptances from several quarters, mostly of small lots, but conservative houses repeatedly denied that the country was offering more freely. St. Louis, however, broke sharply and sold under Chicago, the

AN ADVANCE IN PIG IRON

More Imports Reported, but Foreign Prices Are Also Being Put Up. Structural Material in Heavy Demand—Cotton Goods Advance.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Along the Atlantic coast business was temporarily checked by the storm and some interior points also suffered from unfavorable weather, but consumptive demands give no evidence of abatement. Prices of perishable goods advanced sharply; the whole range of staple commodities tended upward. Jobbing trade in spring lines of wearing apparel is of ample proportions and all heavy hardware and products of iron feel the pressure in that industry. Prospects are most encouraging as to the labor situation. Railway earnings thus far reported for February show a decrease of but 3.5 per cent from last year's figures, which is fully explained by weather conditions, while compared with 1900 there is an increase of 9.8 per cent. Bank exchanges for the week at leading cities outside of New York show a gain of 15.5 per cent over last year's, while the loss at New York is but 5.9 per cent from the total in 1901, which is more than accounted for by a decreased activity in the stock market.

Pig Iron Prices Advance.

While by no means inflated beyond the point fully warranted by urgent purchasers, prices of pig iron have made decided advances despite the opposition of leading interests. More imports are reported, but foreign markets are also advancing now that there is less prospect of American competition because of the unprecedented home demand. Railway supplies and structural material are still the most eagerly sought of finished steel products. Record-breaking building permits indicate the business that will be done by structural mills.

The presence of numerous buyers in the Boston footwear market has not yet produced the desired volume of business. There seems to be almost a deadlock, owing to the disposition of manufacturers to make desired concessions and the unwillingness of purchasers to offer full list prices.

Gains in Cotton Goods.

The hide market is weak and dull, with the quality of Chicago receipts deteriorating. Following the advance in print cloths to 3¼ cents there has been an equivalent gain in many divisions of the cotton goods market. Exporters are bidding for china, although holders now refuse to accept business at the terms they offered early in the month. Woolen and worsted fabrics for fall have received less attention, but sales are still fully up to the average.

Farm staples are remarkably well maintained at the recent advance in quotations. Cotton added a small fraction to its price and ruled quiet during the week at the highest position of the crop year.

Stock market operations were only of fair size and price changes small until Thursday, when a severe break occurred on the announcement that the attorney general would proceed against the Northern Securities Company. Much time must now intervene before the legal status is decided.

Liabilities of commercial failures thus far reported for February aggregated $6,037,351, of which $3,404,627 were in manufacturing, $2,892,142 in trading and $403,112 in other commercial lines. Failures for the week number 250 in the United States against 253 last year, and 21 in Canada against 39 last year.

FINED FOR CONTEMPT.

John J. Gerster Warned by Judge McClung to Obey Court's Order.

John J. Gerster was brought into common pleas court No. 3 yesterday to show cause why he should not be fined for contempt of court. Gerster was in the restaurant business on Fifth avenue, Oakland. Some time ago he sold out to Simpson Hamilton, agreeing not to participate in or open another restaurant within one mile of his former place. A short time after the sale was completed he entered into the employ of another person who opened a restaurant near Gerster's former place of business. Hamilton went into court with the matter and obtained an order from court compelling Gerster to comply with the terms of the agreement made when he sold out.

Without heeding the order of court Gerster continued to work in the restaurant and was brought into court yesterday.

He was fined $25 and costs by Judge S. A. McClung, with instructions to heed the court's decisions hereafter.

All Good

All doctors are good, but only the best can cure the hardest cases. Just so with cough medicines. All are good, but only the best can cure the hardest coughs. Buy the kind the doctors prescribe,—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"For three winters I had a very bad cough. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. In a short time I ceased coughing, and soon was entirely cured."

REWARDS FOR PET STOCK WERE MADE

JUDGES AT THE CHICKEN SHOW WERE BUSY YESTERDAY.

Good Crowds Were in Attendance in Spite of the Disagreeable Weather. Exhibition Will Close This Evening. A Complete Success.

In spite of the bad weather yesterday the attendance at the poultry show was very flattering. During the day and evening the aisles were crowded, and a fair estimate is that the birds were visited by about 1,400 people. The attendance today is expected to exceed that of yesterday. Saturday is always the day when the children are out in the largest numbers, and a big rush of the little folks is expected.

After their arduous duties the pigeon judges enjoyed a rest yesterday, and last night were tendered a banquet by the fanciers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. A great many pigeons were sold at the show yesterday, but many of the sales were not reported to the office. J. M. Skiles disposed of a number of homing pigeons for $15 each, and one was sold by another fancier for $25.

The final awards in the pet stock classes were made yesterday as follows:

DEMURRER IS OVERRULED IN AN EQUITY SUIT

Mother Who Kidnaped Her Daughter Wants Trust Funds Paid Her.

COURT HAS JURISDICTION

Mrs. Catherine S. Stewart Asks for $3,600 a Year from Millionaire James Cochran's Estate to Educate and Maintain Her Child.

Judge Frazer overruled the demurrer to the equity suit of Catherine S. Stewart against George S. Cochran, in which Mrs. Stewart, who was formerly the wife of the defendant, but who is now married to Dr. R. J. Stewart, asks the court of common pleas of this county to compel the trustees under the will of James Cochran of Uniontown, the father of the coke industry in Fayette county, to pay her $3,600 a year for the education of her daughter, Catherine G. Cochran.

The equity suit followed the sensational kidnaping of the little girl on July 18 last, when Mrs. Cochran, aided by three men, succeeded in getting possession of the girl, who was then 5 years old, and was held by the father in Uniontown. At that time Mrs. Cochran alleged that her husband had become intemperate and a spendthrift, and had abused her so much that she was compelled to leave him and seek refuge in the homes of neighbors.

Mrs. Cochran was unable at the time to bear the expense of divorce proceedings and entered into a flirtation with one of her husband's friends, making him so jealous that he instituted the proceedings and afterward paid her $10,000 not to file an answer, when she confronted him with evidence she had secured against him in Pittsburgh.

On one occasion a detective, it is alleged, spent the entire night carriage riding with Mr. Cochran through the slums of Pittsburgh. During a part of the time Mrs. Cochran, it is alleged, was one of the occupants of the carriage and succeeded in abstracting a number of letters from her husband's pockets to be used in the divorce proceedings.

Under the will of James Cochran one sixth of his entire estate of several millions was left in trust to his son, George S. Cochran, the trustees to pay him certain interests providing they were satisfied that he was not using it improvidently. A sum of $10,000 to be paid him in five yearly installments under the same conditions. After his death the principal was to go to his children. This amounted to over $500,000. George S. Cochran was also to provide for his family and educate his children.

The son of the plaintiff and defendant is now being educated at Trinity Hall, Washington county. After the mother kidnaped her daughter she brought suit to recover an amount sufficient to educate and maintain her properly. Mrs. Stewart alleged that Cochran was unfit to take proper care of the little girl and that under the terms of the will he must maintain and educate the child.

The defendant demurred to the bill, claiming that the common pleas court had no jurisdiction; that the trustees were not made parties to the bill, and that the plaintiff had no right or interest in the fund recited in the bill. All these were overruled and the defendant given 15 days to file an answer. Unless the answer is filed today the court will make an order as requested in the bill.

Executions were issued as follows: Mrs. Lida M. Dittmer vs. Charles W. Dittmer, $662; Samuel Klee vs. D. Klee, $250; John W. Palmer vs. J. W. McLin, $1,348; same vs. same, $1,348; Mercantile Trust Company vs. Charles William Fehr, $1,822.

Weiler Bros., liquor dealers, sued Theodore Weiss to recover $460 45 on an account. It is claimed the defendant ordered the plaintiffs to deliver to his son what liquor he desired, which was done from time to time, after which the defendant refused his son's property, which, it is stated, was the result of a conspiracy, as the son did not owe the defendant any rent as was alleged.

An order was made in the United States Circuit court in the case of the Baltimore Building & Loan Association directing Margaret B. Daley to proceed no further in a suit in the common pleas court of Fayette county for the satisfaction of a mortgage. The money due on the mortgage was directed to be paid into the circuit court and the court will then direct the receiver to pay the mortgage.

A decree sustaining the patent of Ira Copeland for cement coated nails and declaring the J. C. Pearson Company sole and exclusive owner of the patent was entered in the United States circuit court in the case of the J. C. Pearson Company against the Western Wire & Nail Company and J. S. Wears. The decree also sets forth that the defendants have infringed the plaintiffs' patent and enjoins them from any further infringement.

Tired

that's all. No energy, no vim, no vigor, no ambition. The head aches, thoughts are confused, memory fails. MAHONEY MAY BE GEN. HOOD'S SUCCESSOR

FORMER OFFICIAL OF B. & O. A POSSIBILITY

Many Rumors Regarding the Election of a President for the Western Maryland.

D. F. Maroney, former general superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio, with headquarters in Pittsburgh, may succeed Gen. John M. Hood as president of the Western Maryland. It is currently reported that a tentative offer of the position has been made to him. The directors of the road will meet in Baltimore next Wednesday to fill the place. Gen. Hood has left the road to become the active head of the United Railways of Baltimore. General Freight and Passenger Agent B. H. Griswold and Col. Henry T. Griswold are also mentioned as possibilities.

The Baltimore city councils are trying to fix a day for the opening of bids for the purchase of the road. Nearly a dozen formal offers for the municipality's holdings have been received. Certified checks for $100,000 accompanied each bid.

The Fuller syndicate, the purchaser of the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh, is said to have made one of the bids. The law firm of which United States Senator Louis E. McComas is the head is representing this syndicate. A formal statement of the syndicate's intentions will be made to the city.

B. & O. Men Are Now In Control.

The Baltimore & Ohio has at last placed men of its own official roster in active charge of the Consolidation Coal Company, which has been controlled by the road for many years. At the annual meeting of the company this week six of the directors retired. They were John K. Cowen, William F. Frick, Robert Garrett, John Gill, Nelson Perin and William Johnston. In their places were chosen L. F. Loree, president of the Baltimore & Ohio system; Oscar G. Murray, vice president; Arthur Hale, assistant general manager; L. G. Haas, assistant general manager; C. W. Woolford, secretary and George M. Shriver. C. K. Lord was re-elected president.

Lake Shore Passenger Changes.

Important changes are announced in the passenger department of the Lake Shore. H. J. Rhein, who has been general eastern agent with offices at Buffalo, has been made general passenger agent of the Lake Erie & Western, with headquarters at Indianapolis. The transfer is made to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of C. F. Daly, the present general passenger agent of the Lake Erie & Western, to the position of chief assistant general passenger agent of the Lake Shore at Chicago. He succeeds F. M. Bryan, resigned. John W. Daly of Cincinnati, who has been the southern agent of the Lake Shore, takes the position of general eastern agent at Buffalo, vacated by his brother. All the changes are to be effective March 1.

RAILROAD NOTES.

George W. Blair, commercial agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul at Cleveland, has been appointed division freight agent of the same road at Cedar Rapids, Ia. The appointment is effective March 1.

The Central Passenger association has granted a rate of one and one-third fares for the round trip on the certificate plan for account of the convention of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity in Pittsburgh April 1-4.

Louis Mason, a veteran conductor on the Akron, was notified a few days ago that he had been bequeathed $1,000 by William A. Tyler of Binghamton, N. Y. The clause in the will says that the bequest is made on account of courteous treatment received while traveling on Conductor Mason's train.

SURVEY EXTENDING BEYOND INDIANA

Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Reported to Be Reaching Out Into the Coke Regions.

The extension of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railroad will not stop at Indiana. Surveyors have passed that town and are at work toward the south. It is believed that the line will be built well into Westmoreland county, and that the Connellsville coke region will eventually be tapped.

It is also reported that the mill region will be entered and that McKeesport will be a terminus. The original surveys for the road provided for such a line. Allegheny was not included in the plans. The route ran through Armstrong county southward, and Pittsburgh was to be entered from that side. Maps are in existence showing this route.

One result of this activity has been the birth of a rumor that Gould interests are after the system. The Goulds have been credited with desires for nearly every railroad in the land that can possibly be bought. There is nothing more than conjecture behind the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh report.

Mile a Minute for 105 Miles.

Pennsylvania railroad men are talking of the new speed record established between Harrisburg and Philadelphia Wednesday night. Train No. 54, with engine 1975 and five cars, in charge of Conductor Charles Eberly and Engineer William Golder, both of Philadelphia, covered the distance in one hour and 45 minutes. This makes an even mile a minute average, as the distance is 105 miles. There was in addition a three-minute stop at Lancaster. The best record until this time was two hours and four minutes.

The More Men Know About Clothing, the Quicker They Buy at This Sale.

Unexpected causes often produce still more unexpected effects. Just look at this February Clothing Clearing. Two Eastern manufacturing tailors, probably the most conservative in the trade, and whose goods are accepted as the Standard of high-class tailoring, for once found themselves with an overproduction on hand. They came to us—offered us their surplus stocks; first at a discount of 25 per cent.; then at a discount of 35 per cent.; finally, if we would take all they had, at a discount of 45 per cent. We Did Take All they had, and would have taken more, for no such high grade clothing had ever before been offered at such low prices. But unexpected as was this fortunate purchase, the result has been even more so. We expected to double our usual February sales, and now we are trebling them. One man tells another about this bona fide sale, where 55c does the work of a dollar—where the word reduction is not a meaningless phrase, but
